Gulf Coast Alerted for Tropical Storm

Texas-Louisiana Area Awaiting Slap Tonight By 'Hurricane Bertha'

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Tropical storm Bertha ballooned into a full-fledged hurricane today and aimed its deadly punch at the west Louisiana—upper Texas coasts along a 125-mile front.

The Weather Bureau's advisory at 11 a. m. (EST) located the hurricane, traveling roughly in the same path as its killer predecessor Audrey six weeks ago, about 140 miles southeast of Lake Charles, La.

The storm's highest winds were estimated at 75 miles an hour within about 30 miles of the center with gales flaring out 100 miles from the center.

The storm was expected to continue moving between west and northwest 10 to 12 miles per hour, aimed in the general direction of the Louisiana-Texas border. The bulletin said tides were rising along the east and central Louisiana coasts.

Residents of the Cameron Parish (county) area, which took the full force of Hurricane Audrey six weeks ago, evacuated Thursday night and residents of other low coastal areas joined in the flight for higher and safer ground.

OFFSHORE drilling crews began returning to the mainland at the first storm warnings Thursday. Civil Defense units were alerted from New Orleans westward and headquarters here was on an around-the-clock watch on Bertha's movements.

G. L. Allen, a forecaster at the New Orleans Weather Bureau, said Bertha's present movement would take it inland somewhere between the Louisiana-Texas border and a point south of Houston.

He said if the storm maintains its present speed and direction, it would probably move inland near the Houston-Galveston area about 10 p. m. tonight.

"However," Allen said, "there is nothing to keep Bertha from veering to the north and hitting Louisiana, or to the south and back into the Gulf."

The Louisiana coastland began to feel Bertha's winds about midnight.

The Weather Bureau advised all interests along the Louisiana coast to keep abreast of Bertha's developments, although winds and tides are not expected to become dangerously high before noon.

Reserve Board Move Makes Money Dearer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board, moving to restrain credit expansion and thus curb inflation, has ordered another one-half per cent increase in the discount rate at four district banks.

The increase to 3½ per cent is effective today in Chicago, Kansas City, Philadelphia and Minneapolis. It brings the discount rate to the highest level in 23 years. The last previous boost came nearly a year ago.

The increase is expected to be extended to eight remaining reserve banks, but there may be some time lag before this happens. These banks are in New York, Boston, San Francisco, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, St. Louis and Dallas.

Announcing the action, the reserve board said Thursday it followed recommendations of directors of the banks in the four affected reserve districts.

The discount rate is the charge levied by the Federal Reserve when member banks borrow from it. The higher rate is intended to discourage such borrowing. This in turn tends to limit the funds available for commercial lending.

A spokesman for the Federal Reserve Board said prices have been on the upgrade for 10 straight months. He noted the approach of a period of seasonal increases in credit expansion with the opening of schools and the Christmas buying time.

"The obvious thing," he said, "is to move the rates into line with the general market."

Turks Massing Troops

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Syrian press reports said today Turkey was massing troops on Syria's border. The reports said between 3,500 and 5,000 troops with 30 tanks and armed vehicles were concentrated in the area.

MRS. DONALD STEPHENS

Mrs. Stephens Quits TB Post

Executive Secretary Moving to Dayton

Mrs. Donald Stephens has resigned as executive secretary of the Fayette and Highland County Tuberculosis and Health associations.

Mrs. Stephens, who came to Washington C. H. three years ago from Lansing, Mich., submitted her resignation to the Fayette County board at its regular meeting Thursday night. It was accepted with regret.

In her letter of resignation, Mrs. Stephens said she had accepted the position of program consultant of the Montgomery County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. and that her husband has joined the sales force of a soft drink bottling company in Dayton.

She said they plan to move to Dayton before Sept. 1, the date she is to join the staff of the association there.

ROBERT TICE, president of the Fayette County Assn., said Friday that the board intends to appoint a successor to Mrs. Stephens, but added that "Mrs. Stephens has everything in such good order that we can take our time to find someone we feel is qualified."

Although no deadline for filling the position was set, Tice said the board hopes to have a new executive secretary within a month.

GI Said Innocent In Korean Slaying

SEOUL (AP)—A U. S. Army court-martial today found Pvt. Ronald E. Fassett of Ulster, Pa., innocent of negligent homicide in the fatal shooting of a Korean boy, 3.

The 19-year-old soldier was, however, fined two-thirds of his pay for three months for careless discharge of his weapon. An American private in Korea receives $93.80 a month.

The Korean boy, Kim Young Ho, was struck in the head when Fassett's carbine discharged July 6 at the port city of Inchon. Both the Army and Fassett said the shooting was an accident. Fassett was guarding a pipeline at the time of the incident.

9 Bombings Recorded In Uneasy Cuban City

3-Time Loser Chooses Death To Pen Term

Ex-Convict Found Dead after Wounding 2 Policemen, Girl

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—A three-time loser chose death rather than prison Thursday and died in his hotel room with a bullet through his brain after wounding two policemen and a girl.

Police identified the dead man as Everett Sparks, 30, of Portland, Ore. He was shot to death in his 12th floor room in a downtown hotel after wounding a detective and a girl bystander in the hotel lobby and wounding another policeman in the corridor outside his room.

Police filled the room with tear gas and riddled it with gunfire, then found Sparks dead. Investigators said he may have taken his own life. A bullet had entered his right temple and emerged on the left side of his head.

Sgt. James A. Partain, 52, who was shot in the lobby, was reported in serious condition with a bullet wound in the groin and two wounds in his legs.

Constable Caile, 19, of Crawfordsville, Ind., was wounded in the thigh, and Patrolman Raymond A. Cooper, 36, was shot in the arm, but they were not in serious condition.

SPARKS' companions, Travis Gatewood, 34, of Portland; Dorothy Norris, 26, St. Louis; and Maude Booth, 22, Des Moines, were held for questioning.

Sparks started shooting at Partain after discovering he was a policeman. Sparks had been called to the lobby by the assistant manager, Robert Callis, 29, who asked him to pay his bill, and Partain had been asked to stand by.

Miss Caile, a bystander, was wounded in the exchange of gunfire in the lobby.

Sparks fled to an elevator and went up to the 12th floor, where police pursued him.

Gatewood told police he and Miss Norris were in Sparks' room when Sparks burst in and said: "I have just shot a cop. I'm going to shoot it out with the rest of them."

Gatewood said Sparks tossed him a gun and said:

"I'm a three-time loser. I'm damned if I'm going back for another stretch in the pen."

Gatewood said he replied, "I'm a three-time loser, too, but I like my life." He and Miss Norris walked out and surrendered before the shooting began.

Miss Booth first told police she was married to Sparks two weeks ago. Later she said she met the two men in Des Moines three weeks ago and flew to Indianapolis with them last Sunday. Miss Norris joined the party later.

Akron Race Aide Loses License

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Ohio Racing Commission Thursday revoked the license of Gobel S. Waddell as chief security officer at Ascot Park near Akron, ignoring an Akron grand jury's report that cleared Waddell and criticized racing commission inspectors.

Inspector George Carnes had accused Waddell, a Summit County deputy sheriff, of refusing to act against bookmakers at the track.

Waddell requested an investigation by the grand jury, which reported that he had not allowed bookmaking, but that commission inspectors had obstructed Waddell.

Farmer's Case Still Unsettled

Jury 'Hangs' on Fuss With Crop Mapmaker

MOUNT VERNON (AP)—A Municipal Court jury failed to reach a verdict Thursday in a year-old case originating from a farmer's bitter opposition to government crop controls.

The jury deliberated two hours in the case of Clifford J. Simpson, 47, accused of assault and battery against Glenn F. Baker, 17, a map maker for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Judge C. J. Lester dismissed the jury when it appeared that no verdict was possible. There was no immediate indication when, if ever, the case would be brought to trial again.

The incident leading to the filing of charges against Simpson by young Baker's father, Everett, happened in the summer of 1956. Young Baker, a summer employee of the agricultural committee, had gone to the Simpson farm north of Mount Vernon to make a map of the farm. Such maps are used by the government in its crop control and conservation programs.

YOUNG BAKER charged that Simpson chased him off the farm with a pitchfork.

Simpson has long voiced his opposition in this area against any type of government farm or crop controls. During the trial, he testified he had told the committee he would not permit anyone on his farm for the purpose of making a map.

He testified also that he had grabbed a pitchfork and struck at a map board Baker was holding, and that he told Baker at the time, "I'll take care of that Communist map."

Dayton Stabbing Death Is Ruled Accidental

DAYTON (AP)—Montgomery County Coroner Robert Zipp has ruled the stabbing death of Sabar Turner, 41, of near Dayton, was accidental.

Turner was stabbed Tuesday night following a tavern argument with his wife. Police released his wife, Ruby, 32, from custody following the coroner's ruling. The coroner said Turner apparently accidentally stabbed himself during the argument.

'Good Lord Calling Shots,' Pilot Says of Aerial Ordeal

HONOLULU (AP)—"I wasn't calling the shots—the good Lord was." That's Maj. Samuel Tyson's explanation of how he kept his huge C-97 military air transport aloft 6½ hours on two engines Thursday for 1,000 miles over the Pacific with 67 people aboard.

Record-Size Balloon Lifts High into Sky

MANCHESTER, N. H. (AP)—The largest balloon ever released in the United States was launched at Grenier Air Force Base today. Air Force officials said it eventually will soar 17 miles above the earth's surface.

Air Force officials said it will gleam in sunshine and warned it might touch off a round of "flying saucer" reports.

The balloon was the third in a series being released here to gather research data about balloons themselves and also to obtain information for meteorologists.

Dr. Alvin H. Howell, directing the balloon program for the Air Force Research Center at Bedford Mass., said the pear-shaped balloon will reach a measurement of about 200 feet in diameter when it soars to its maximum ceiling of 90,000 feet.

The balloon rose rapidly and disappeared above the clouds in 30 minutes. Dr. Howell said "the mechanism is 'set for five days.'"

By then, he said, the balloon may reach the West Coast "or at least the Rocky Mountains."

Its location will be traced by a signal sent out from a radio in the instrument package which hangs below it.

After five days, an automatic mechanism will cut the instrument from the balloon and they will descend by parachute with instructions to the finder and information about a $25 reward.

$3.3 Billion Foreign Aid Bill Sent Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was presented today with a $3.3 billion foreign aid program embodying a first step toward a long range program of economic help abroad.

President Eisenhower has urged such a program.

Senate and House conferees agreed Thursday night on a compromise foreign aid bill, slashed $48,410,000 below the $3,864,410,000 Eisenhower asked for military, economic and technical assistance abroad.

Mamie Doing All Right

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's recovery "continues to be most satisfactory," her doctor reported today. An Army gynecologist performed an operation on the President's wife Tuesday for a condition described as non-cancerous.

and the Berlin Airlift who comes from Council Bluffs, Iowa, piloted the plane into Hilo, Hawaii, at 11:25 a. m. Thursday.

Two of its engines had quit just beyond the "point of no return" from Travis Air Force Base, Calif., to Hickam AFB, Oahu.

"It never occurred to me that we would ditch," said Tyson.

"I'm a coward. I can't swim very far. The water's cold."

More seriously he said, "I'd determined to take things as they came. After the first shock of realizing we were in danger, and after the adrenalin shot into me, I thought clearer and acted better. I had confidence in myself."

"After all, I wasn't calling the shots—the good Lord was."

"Did you know you have been recommended for the Distinguished Flying Cross?" asked a newsmen.

"Nope," said Tyson.

"He's already got two of them," said a crewman.

MATS headquarters recommended the DFC within minutes after Tyson landed.

Tyson landed his nine crewmen and 57 passengers safely at Hilo after a last-minute ordeal when the landing gear didn't lower. Two flight engineers worked the big wheel down by an emergency hand crank. The wheel housing had jammed because the No. 2 engine had been damaged when the No. 1 propeller flew off.

The big plane landed smoothly in spite of the yaw created by the two engines on only one side.

Passengers and crew emerged dripping with sweat. Not only had they been "sweating it out" for nearly seven hours, all vents had been closed, said Navy Capt. William M. Lowry, Coronado, Calif., one of the passengers.

"There was no confusion," he added.

The ordeal began early Thursday when the No. 1 propeller started running away and flew off and damaged the No. 2 propeller and engine.

Tyson took her down to 50 feet and flew at that altitude or slightly above it most of the 1,000 miles.

Passengers were moved forward to help balance the sky giant, flying unevenly on her two engines.

"They were very cooperative, finest lot of passengers I've ever had," declared Tyson.

Baggage was jettisoned, including 1,500 pounds of mail.

LT. COL. BAILEY

Bailey Wins Promotion in Air Reserve

The promotion of Maj. John E. Bailey, 816 Willard St., to lieutenant colonel, has been announced by the commander of the 9104th Air Reserve Group (Columbus Air Reserve Center), Ft. Hayes.

Lt. Col. Bailey, formerly associated with the recently-disbanded Roads Motor Sales Co., has been an Air Force officer since 1942 and active in the reserves since his discharge from regular service in 1945.

As a member of the group's 9029th Squadron, Bailey receives specialized part-time training at the Columbus Air Reserve Center from September through June.

His World War II service included nearly three years in England. He was made a second lieutenant in May, 1942, and has climbed steadily through the ranks since then.

The promotion is the result of this year's selection action under the Reserve Officers Personnel Act, calling for mandatory consideration for promotion of eligible reserve officers.

DPL Gets OK on New Sabina Utility Rates

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio today permitted the Dayton Power and Light Co. to charge its Sabina water and electric customers the same rates it charges its Wilmington customers.

The man reported to be planning defections was described by a dependable source to be a veteran of World War II in his early 30s. He may already have taken the initial steps. His name was not immediately divulged.

The American has not been seen in the U. S. delegation's hotel at the Moscow agricultural exhibition for more than two days. Several of his friends said he was in an infirmary ill with gripe and no one could see him.

Two other American delegates told other Americans they were thinking of staying here for "study" when the festival ends.

Fifteen Americans, including eight members of the group's administrative committee, will make the three-week trip as non-paying guests of the Peiping government.

The others will be asked to pay a token $100 each for transportation to and from China and for all expenses of their tour.

They are expected to leave shortly after the windup of the Moscow festival Sunday.

Pair Shocked By Federal Judge's Action

NEW YORK (AP)—Jacob Albaum, 64, a former Brooklyn tea and spice dealer, and Mrs. Myra Sobel, 52, were sentenced to 5½ years in prison each today for spying for the Soviet Union.

Her husband, Jack, 54, a third member of the espionage ring, will be sentenced Sept. 18. He was not in court. All three had pleaded guilty.

In a separate hearing, accused master Russian spy Rudolph Ivanovich Abel was arraigned on charges that could bring his execution. A plea of innocent was entered for him by the court.

Both Albaum and Mrs. Sobel appeared shocked when Federal District Judge Richard H. Levett pronounced the sentences.

Throughout the preliminaries, the blonde Mrs. Sobel wept softly. Albaum, bespectacled and balding, had stared nervously at the floor.

Nervously pacing a corridor outside the courtroom was the Sobels' 17-year-old son, Lawrence, who repeatedly has expressed faith in his parents.

AT THE TIME of their arrest last January he said he was "more than 100 per cent certain" they were not spies. After the pleaded guilty last April, the youth said:

"Whatever they did it was to protect the lives of my grandparents or other innocent persons."

The Sobels and Albaum all came to the United States as European refugees.

The son, attending school in Manhattan at the time of the arrests, was described by classmates as the "best American" in the class.

The three defendants were charged specifically with conspiring with "numerous high ranking Soviet officials" to obtain documents, photographs and writings vital to the defense of the United States, knowing they were to be transmitted to the Soviet Union.

Abel, looking somewhat haggard and disheveled in dress, was held without bail when arraigned before Federal Dist. Judge Matthew T. Abruzzo.

The judge inquired whether Abel had obtained a lawyer and Abel said he had not. Asked how long it would take him to get one, Abel replied:

"I really don't know."

Abel said he would like to be given time to secure an attorney. (Please turn to page two)

Search Pressed For Woman Hiker

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Parts of Pike's Peak considered too rough for horses will be explored today in the four-day-old search for an 88-year-old woman mountain climber.

Other groups of volunteers and sheriff's deputies planned to track across lower levels of the famed mountain for the first time, and more than 100 searchers will check the upper half of the 14,000-foot peak.

Mrs. Inestine B. Roberts of Colorado Springs disappeared on her way down from the summit, on foot and alone. She was due at a halfway lodge Monday night.

Dio Asks $10,000 To Quit Union, but Gets $16,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former official of the old United Auto Workers Union—AFL testified today that racketeer Johnny Dio demanded $10,000 as his price for quitting the union, but actually secretly received $16,000.

Morris Weintraub, now a South Newport, Ky., lawyer, said he had been leading a fight to fire Dio from the UAW, and felt at the time it was worth $10,000 "if we could get rid of him lock, stock and barrel."

And if, as Dio contended, the racketeer actually had spent that much out of his own pocket for union organizational efforts, Weintraub told the Senate Rackets Committee he didn't know, until he heard it recently from committee investigators, that the amount paid was $16,000, not the $10,000 he and others understood was being paid.

Mobster Dio had invoked the Fifth Amendment, pleading an answer might incriminate him, when asked Thursday to tell why he received the $16,000.

DIO ALSO invoked the Fifth Amendment on 139 other questions including whether he had any ties with James R. Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters Union. The committee contends Dio and Hoffa

U. S. Womanhood Has Males Pinned Firmly by Ears, Britisher Observes

LONDON (AP)—A British newsman came up today with the appalling finding that "American womanhood has got American manhood firmly pinned down by the ears."

Edward N. Connor, columnist for the Daily Mirror, said he reached that pained conclusion after close observation of the "formidable darlings" during a recent tour of the United States and from talking with American women tourists in London.

"All this talk about the 'dominant male' just ceases to be true when you sail past the Statue of Liberty," reported Connor.

"The American gal is more pampered, petted and pursued than any other female on earth," the columnist declared. "Not only have they got the poor sucker in a headlock of inextricable moral superiority that will break his neck if he tries to get free, but these Yankee Amazons are growing physically bigger every year."

"The average American woman gains an inch in height every 10 years and now is a half head taller than she was 50 years ago. Come the year 2,000 the average honey chile will be topping 6 feet 4 inches in her nylons and looking askance at any Romeo from Dallas, Denver or Des Moines who weighs less than 250 pounds and can get under a six-foot door without stooping."

Letting go at the American woman and matters financial, Connor declared: "She spends eight billion dollars a year on clothing her nakedness and considers that if she hasn't at least one car she is a cripple and that if she hasn't a refrigerator, television set and washing machine, she might as well live in a cave."

"She buys four times as much goods as the man who provides her with the money to do so and (the most fatal statistic of all) she outlives her husband by an average of seven years."

Furthermore, the Britisher deplored: "She knows exactly what her husband earns and actually strips cash off him when he arrives home on payday. He exists on an allowance."

"She believes in 'togetherness' which, in her appalling jargon, means that when the old man comes home limp as a plastic spongebag after belting it at the office, he is expected to play with the kids instantly."

"It is a wonder," Connor concluded, "that the race doesn't die out."

YOUNG BAKER charged that Simpson chased him off the farm with a pitchfork.

Simpson has long voiced his opposition in this area against any type of government farm or crop controls. During the trial, he testified he had told the committee he would not permit anyone on his farm for the purpose of making a map.

He testified also that he had grabbed a pitchfork and struck at a map board Baker was holding, and that he told Baker at the time, "I'll take care of that Communist map."

Dayton Stabbing Death Is Ruled Accidental

DAYTON (AP)—Montgomery County Coroner Robert Ziff has ruled the stabbing death of Stabur Turner, 41, of near Dayton, was accidental.

Turner was stabbed Tuesday night following a tavern argument with his wife. Police released his wife, Ruby, 32, from custody following the coroner's ruling. The coroner said Turner apparently accidentally stabbed himself during the argument.

Dollar Days Event Opens

Semiannual Dollar Days drew many area shoppers Friday morning as the two-day sales event got under way in Washington C. H. stores.

Several merchants reported that the opening day crowd was the largest for Dollar Days in years.

Hundreds of items have been especially priced. Regular store hours will prevail Saturday, with most business places open until 9 p. m.

'Good Lord Calling Shots,' Pilot Says of Aerial Ordeal

HONOLULU (AP)—"I wasn't calling the shots—the good Lord was."

That's Maj. Samuel Tyson's explanation of how he kept his huge C97 military air transport aloft 6½ hours on two engines Thursday for 1,000 miles over the Pacific with 67 people aboard.

Record-Size Balloon Lifts High into Sky

MANCHESTER, N. H. (AP)—The largest balloon ever released in the United States was launched at Grenier Air Force Base today. Air Force officials said it eventually will soar 17 miles above the earth's surface.

Air Force officials said it will gleam in sunshine and warn it might touch off a round of "flying saucer" reports.

The balloon was the third in a series being released here to gather research data about balloons themselves and also to obtain information for meteorologists.

Dr. Alvin H. Howell, directing the balloon program for the Air Force Research Center at Bedford Mass., said the pear-shaped balloon will reach a measurement of about 200 feet in diameter when it soars to its maximum ceiling of 90,000 feet.

The balloon rose rapidly and disappeared above the clouds in 30 minutes. Dr. Howell said the mechanism is "set for five days."

By then, he said, the balloon may reach the West Coast "or at least the Rocky Mountains."

Its location will be traced by a signal sent out from a radio in the instrument package which hangs below it.

After five days, an automatic mechanism will cut the instruments from the balloon and they will descend by parachute with instructions to the finder and information about a $25 reward.

$3.3 Billion Foreign Aid Bill Sent Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was presented today with a $3.3 billion foreign aid program embodying a first step toward a long range program of economic help abroad.

President Eisenhower has urged such a program.

Senate and House conferees agreed Thursday night on a compromise foreign aid bill, slashed $498,410,000 below the $3,864,410,000 Eisenhower asked for military, economic and technical assistance abroad.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's recovery "continues to be most satisfactory," her doctor reported today. An Army gynecologist performed an operation on the President's wife Tuesday for a condition described as non-cancerous.

Pair Shocked By Federal Judge's Action

NEW YORK (AP)—Jacob Albaum, 64, a former Brooklyn tea and spice dealer, and Mrs. Myra Sobel, 52, were sentenced to 5½ years in prison each today for spying for the Soviet Union.

Her husband, Jack, 54, a third member of the espionage ring, will be sentenced Sept. 18. He was not in court. All three had pleaded guilty.

In a separate hearing, accused master Russian spy Rudolph Ivanovich Abel was arraigned on charges that could bring his execution. A plea of innocent was entered for him by the court.

Both Albaum and Mrs. Sobel appeared shocked when Federal District Judge Richard H. Levett pronounced the sentences.

Throughout the preliminaries, the blonde Mrs. Sobel wept softly. Albaum, bespectacled and balding, had stared nervously at the floor.

Nervously pacing a corridor outside the courtroom was the Sobels' 17-year-old son, Lawrence, who repeatedly has expressed faith in his parents.

AT THE TIME of their arrest last January he said he was "more than 100 per cent certain" they were not spies. After the pleaded guilty last April, the youth said: "Whatever they did it was to protect the lives of my grandparents or other innocent persons."

The Sobels and Albaum all came to the United States as European refugees.

The son, attending school in Manhattan at the time of the arrests, was described by classmates as the "best American" in the class.

The three defendants were charged specifically with conspiring with "numerous high ranking Soviet officials" to obtain documents, photographs and writings vital to the defense of the United States, knowing they were to be transmitted to the Soviet Union.

Abel, looking somewhat haggard and disheveled in dress, was held without bail when arraigned before Federal Dist. Judge Matthew T. Abruzzo.

The judge inquired whether Abel had obtained a lawyer and Abel said he had not. Asked how long it would take him to get one, Abel replied:

"I really don't know."

Abel said he would like to be given time to secure an attorney. (Please turn to page two)

40 Americans May Visit in Red China

MOSCOW (AP)—About 40 American delegates to the Communist-sponsored World Youth Festival today accepted an invitation to visit Red China, and at least one appeared to be on the verge of defecting to the Soviet Union.

There is an American State Department ban on travel to Communist China.

The man reported to be planning defection was described by a dependable source to be a veteran of World War II in his early 30s. He may already have taken the initial steps. His name was not immediately divulged.

The U. S. delegation's hotel at the Moscow agricultural exhibition for more than two days. Several of his friends said he was in an infirmity ill with grippie and no one could see him.

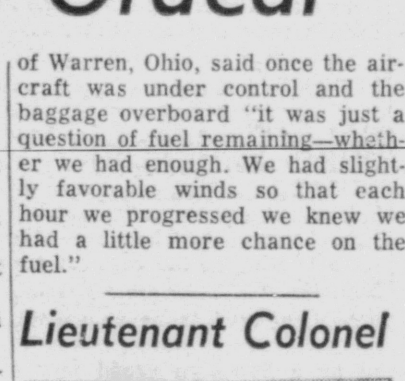

Two other American delegates told other Americans they were thinking of staying here for "study" when the festival ends.

Fifteen Americans, including eight members of the group's administrative committee, will make the three-week trip as non-paying guests of the Peiping government.

The others will be asked to pay a token $100 each for transportation to and from China and for all expenses of their tour.

They are expected to leave shortly after the windup of the Moscow festival Sunday.

LT. COL. BAILEY

Bailey Wins Promotion in Air Reserve

The promotion of Maj. John E. Bailey, 816 Willard St., to lieutenant colonel, has been announced by the commander of the 9104th Air Reserve Group (Columbus Air Reserve Center), Ft. Hayes.

Lt. Col. Bailey, formerly associated with the recently-disbanded Roads Motor Sales Co., has been an Air Force officer since 1942 and active in the reserves since his discharge from regular service in 1945.

As a member of the group's 9029th Squadron, Bailey receives specialized part-time training at the Columbus Air Reserve Center from September through June.

His World War II service included nearly three years in England. He was made a second lieutenant in May, 1942, and has climbed steadily through the ranks since then.

The promotion is the result of this year's selection action under the Reserve Officers Personnel Act, calling for mandatory consideration for promotion of eligible reserve officers.

Dio Asks $10,000 To Quit Union, but Gets $16,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former official of the old United Auto Workers Union - AFL testified today that racketeer Johnny Dio demanded $10,000 as his price for quitting the union, but actually secretly received $16,000.

Morris Weintraub, now a South New York, N. Y., lawyer, said he had been leading a fight to fire Dio from the UAW, and felt at the time it was worth $10,000 "if we could get rid of him lock, stock and barrel."

And if, as Dio contended, the racketeer actually had spent that much out of his own pocket for union organizational efforts, Wein-

Search Pressed For Woman Hiker

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Parts of Pike's Peak considered too rough for horses will be explored today in the four-day-old search for an 88-year-old woman mountain climber.

Other groups of volunteers and sheriff's deputies planned to track across lower levels of the famed mountain for the first time, and more than 100 searchers will check the upper half of the 14,100-foot peak.

Mrs. Inestine B. Roberts of Colorado Springs disappeared on her way down from the summit, on foot and alone. She was due at a halfway lodge Monday night.

Driver Penalty Point System Is Disputed

Cincinnati Judge Rules Regulation Not in Force till Sept. 22

CINCINNATI (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Louis J. Schneider ruled today that the emergency clause in Ohio's new drivers' penalty point system is invalid.

Judge Schneider's decision had the effect of ruling that the law will not go into effect until Sept. 22.

The decision came in an appeal by a Lockland man from a citation which could have meant loss of his drivers' license. The man, Fred Y. Youngblood, was the first to be cited for having accumulated the 12 penalty points which can mean revocation of the license.

The emergency clause, designed to make the new law effective immediately upon its signing by Gov. C. William O'Neill, was attached to the bill by a joint Senate-House conference committee after the measure had been passed in different forms by the two houses.

THE OHIO Constitution provides a separate vote in each house on whether an emergency clause shall stand as a part of the bill under consideration.

But veteran Senate Clerk Thomas Bateman advised the Senate's presiding officer, Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, that a separate vote on the emergency clause was not necessary because the Senate merely was voting to accept the report of the conference committee. The report was accepted by a vote far in excess of the two-thirds required for emergency clauses.

In connection with two other bills passed by the last Legislature involving the issuance of bonds, the Senate had taken only a single vote in a situation similar to that which prevailed on the driver point bill.

A bond counseling firm, however, questioned the validity of the emergency clauses on the two bills involving bonds and the Legislature in a last-minute flurry repassed both bills as emergency measures. At that time Bateman insisted the action was unnecessary and commented:

"If those emergency clauses aren't legal, neither are scores of them we have passed over the years."

In Columbus, Huntington Carlie, first assistant attorney general, said, "We will seek the advice of the governor whether or not an appeal is to be taken."

Carlie added, "We want a little time to study what has occurred." He said the attorney general's office has never been asked for a ruling on the validity of the emergency clause.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe was out of the state and could not be reached for comment.

Johnny Dio

worked hand in glove to enhance Hoffa's union power and enrich Dio.

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said another witness who would be questioned about the matter is Earl Heaton, retiring president of the Allied Industrial Workers (AIW). This is a new name that was taken by the old AFL-UAW.

Among matters that Dio refused to talk about was the $16,000 check given him by the UAW-AFL in September 1954 and signed by Anthony Doria, then the UAW-AFL's secretary-treasurer.

Doria, who was involved in a Senate investigation of labor union welfare fund scandals a few years ago, recently quit as the AIW's secretary-treasurer. Kennedy said Doria was paid some $80,000 for stepping out.

When Dio refused to acknowledge his signature on the $16,000 check, Kennedy said Doria had explained it as repayment of money Dio had "invested" in UAW-AFL Local 102.

That is the local, Kennedy said, in which Dio collected hoodlums and later switched them into a batch of specially created Teamsters Union locals to rig the election of a Hoffa-picked man to the top Teamsters spot in the key New York area.

Spies Sentenced

before further proceedings and the judge complied. The judge then set a hearing in the case for noon Aug. 13.

Abel, alleged to be an agent of the Soviet secret police, was indicted by a Brooklyn grand jury on charges that he headed a Russian spy ring sending U. S. military and atomic secrets to his homeland.

The 55-year-old prisoner kept his hands clasped in front of him as he stood before the judge's bench and gave his answers to the judge's questions calmly.

Asst. U. S. Atty. William F. Tompkins, addressing the judge when the matter of possible bail was raised, described Abel as the head "of a most elaborate and intricate espionage" ring.

He said Abel was "skillfully trained in the practice of espionage, skillfully trained in the art of avoiding detection and skilled in the use of aliases."

Tompkins pointed out that Abel had employed at least four aliases.

He opposed granting bail for the defendant, saying Abel was a national of the Soviet Union, had entered this country illegally, concealed his presence here and "illegally obtained" secret information relating to our national defense.

He said there was nothing to insure that Abel would appear for trial if released on bond and he urged "the highest possible security" be given to assure the defendant's presence at the trial.

Judge Abruzzo pointed out that if the charges against Abel are proven he can be punished by death or imprisonment for any number of years. He said he would hold Abel without bail until Tuesday but that he was going to "leave it open so the attorney for Abel can make any argument" he wishes.

Poodle Hampers Patrolman's Work

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Motorcycle patrolman Eugene Scoville waved Mrs. Lulu Mae Johnson to the curb Thursday after clocking her at 34 miles per hour in a 25-mile zone.

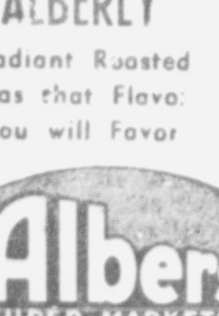

"Let me see your driver's license," he said, reaching in the car window.

The woman's French poodle, Billy Echo, grabbed the officer's arm and "I thought he never was going to let loose," Mrs. Johnson said.

In the excitement Scoville almost forgot the speeding charge. Scoville got his arm treated, and Billy Echo got 10 days under observation for possible rabies.

THE GRANGES also made plans for participation in Farm-City Day at the Fairground here Aug. 22. A barbecue at noon and a program about 2 p. m. are among the features of the affair.

On the program will be numbers by the Jeffersonville High School band, a quartet from New Martinsburg and the Smith family band from Jeffersonville.

The principal speaker of the afternoon will be Chester Alsop of Canal Winchester. He is chairman of the Ohio State Grange.

Robert Terhune will be master of ceremonies.

Tickets are available from Grangers and businessmen of Washington, C. H.

The Grange also voted to have an exhibit at the Ohio Pork Assn. picnic at the Fairground here Sept. 14.

An invitation was extended to attend an open house for Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Roberts in Wilmington, former Pomona members celebrating their golden wedding anniversary next Sunday.

THE BUSINESS and Professional Women's Club here, it was announced, has purchased supplies for the occupational therapy department at Mt. Logan.

The Alpha Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, headed by Mrs. Howard Burnett Jr. advised the board it would continue to lend its active support to the association.

The annual report of the Christmas Seal sale, which finances the program of the association, showed a gross sale last year of $5,288.31, a per capita average of 21.87 cents. Of this total, $4,434.90 remains in Fayette County to carry on the treatment and rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients.

THE BOARD also reviewed some of the recent activities of the association. It was pointed out that the patient services and rehabilitation was stressed in the exhibit at the Fair here this year. Sales of handicraft articles made by Mt. Logan Sanatorium patients totaled $40, the board was told.

retary for the Fayette County Assn. on a half-week basis or one who might want to serve both Fayette and Highland counties, a half-week for each county as Mrs. Stephens did.

Mrs. Stephens expressed her appreciation to "my advisors on the board and to the residents of this community," in her letter and said "my fine experience here has been a stepping stone to this opportunity to do a similar type of work in a neighboring area."

Before Mrs. Stephens came to Washington, C. H. three years ago, she had spent seven years in the County Chest Hospital at Lansing as head of the out-patient department.

Mrs. Stephens said her work in Montgomery County will include case finding, public relations, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients, working with patients and directing, to a considerable extent, the health education program.

She gave a similar service, except on a more limited scale, here. During the three years, Mrs. Stephens was executive secretary of the Fayette County association, more than 10,000 chest X-rays were made without charge. Positive cases turned up by the X-ray program were followed through by Mrs. Stephens, the Health Department and family physicians to provide treatment to bring the disease under control.

TICE PRESIDED over the Thursday night meeting which was attended by Miss Frances White, Miss Mary Frances Snyder, Frank Grubbs, Warren Brannon, F. M. Kennedy and Leonard Miller, all members of the board.

As representative director of the Fayette County Group, Grubbs reported on the state association meeting in Columbus last June. With the report, he presented a number of suggestions for improvement of educational techniques for tuberculosis control here. The board agreed to discuss these suggestions at a future meeting.

The board also reviewed some of the recent activities of the association. It was pointed out that the patient services and rehabilitation was stressed in the exhibit at the Fair here this year. Sales of handicraft articles made by Mt. Logan Sanatorium patients totaled $40, the board was told.

Rayburn Hints Compromise Coming on Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Speaker Rayburn said today he favors House approval of the Senate-passed civil rights bill including the jury trial provision.

If necessary, Rayburn said, he would be willing to modify the jury trial provision to limit it to voting cases only.

The fate of the bill in the House rests largely with the Republicans, he added.

In order for the House to consider the bill, Rayburn pointed out, the Rules Committee must give its approval and "Republicans on Rules will have to get a rule to take up the bill and concur in the Senate amendments."

Meacham, who conducted a write-in poll for names for a pair of the snakes, wants to know which one died Thursday—the male or the female.

Only an autopsy will tell which snake died.

Driver Penalty Point System Is Disputed

Cincinnati Judge Rules
Regulation Not in Force till Sept. 22

CINCINNATI (U-P) — Common Pleas Judge Louis J. Schneider ruled today that the emergency clause in Ohio's new drivers' penalty point system is invalid.

Judge Schneider's decision had the effect of ruling that the law will not go into effect until Sept. 22.

The decision came in an appeal by a Lockland man from a citation which could have meant loss of his drivers' license. The man, Fred Y. Youngblood, was the first to be cited for having accumulated the 12 penalty points which can mean revocation of the license.

The emergency clause, designed to make the new law effective immediately upon its signing by Gov. C. William O'Neill, was attached to the bill by a joint Senate-House conference committee after the measure had been passed in different forms by the two houses.

THE OHIO Constitution provides a separate vote in each house on whether an emergency clause shall stand as a part of the bill under consideration.

But veteran Senate Clerk Thomas Bateman advised the Senate's presiding officer, Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, that a separate vote on the emergency clause was not necessary because the Senate merely was voting to accept the report of the conference committee. The report was accepted by a vote far in excess of the two-thirds required for emergency clauses.

In connection with two other bills passed by the last Legislature involving the issuance of bonds, the Senate had taken only a single vote in a situation similar to that which prevailed on the driver point bill.

A bond counseling firm, however, questioned the validity of the emergency clauses on the two bills involving bonds and the Legislature in a last-minute flurry re-passed both bills as emergency measures. At that time Bateman insisted the action was unnecessary and commented:

"If those emergency clauses aren't legal, neither are scores of others we have passed over the years."

In Columbus, Huntington Carille, first assistant attorney general, said, "We will seek the advice of the governor whether or not an appeal is to be taken."

Carille added, "We want a little time to study what has occurred." He said the attorney general's office has never been asked for a ruling on the validity of the emergency clause.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe was out of the state and could not be reached for comment.

worked hand in glove to enhance Hoffa's union power and enrich Dio.

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said another witness who would be questioned about the matter is Earl Heaton, retiring president of the Allied Industrial Workers (AIW). This is a new name that was taken by the old AFL-UAW.

Among matters that Dio refused to talk about was the $16,000 check given him by the UAW-AFL in September 1954 and signed by Anthony Doria, then the UAW-AFL's secretary-treasurer.

Doria, who was involved in a Senate investigation of labor union welfare fund scandals a few years ago, recently quit as the AIW's secretary-treasurer. Kennedy said Doria was paid some $80,000 for stepping out.

When Dio refused to acknowledge his signature on the $16,000 check, Kennedy said Doria had explained it as repayment of money Dio had "invested" in UAW-AFL Local 102.

That is the local, Kennedy said, in which Dio collected hoodlums and later switched them into a batch of specially created Teamsters Union locals to rig the election of a Hoffa-picked man to the top Teamsters spot in the key New York area.

Deaths, Funerals

Otha Cox

MT. STERLING — Otha Cox, 64, longtime rural mail carrier in this area, died Wednesday after surgery in Lakewood Hospital, near Cleveland.

Born in Fayette County near Madison Mills he had lived in this area all his life. He spent many years in Washington C. H.

A member of the National Rural Letter Carriers' Assn. and the Mt. Sterling Rotary Club, he also belonged to the Madison County Grange and the Mt. Sterling Methodist Church.

Survivors include a son, Leo, serving with the Army in Japan; two daughters, Mrs. Louise Lockhart and Mrs. Ruth Anderson, of Cleveland; two brothers, Owen of near Bloomington and Floyd of Waterloo; three sisters, Mrs. Hazel Anders of near Washington C. H. and Mrs. Ethel Daguerre and Mrs. Wanh Bondurant of Columbus.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Saturday in the Mt. Sterling Methodist Church under the direction of the Snyder Funeral Home where friends may call any time.

Burial will be in Madison Mills Cemetery.

Spies Sentenced

before further proceedings and the judge complied. The judge then set a hearing in the case for noon Aug. 13.

Abel, alleged to be an agent of the Soviet secret police, was indicted by a Brooklyn grand jury on charges that he headed a Russian spy ring sending U. S. military and atomic secrets to his homeland.

The 55-year-old prisoner kept his hands clasped in front of him as he stood before the judge's bench and gave his answers to the judge's questions calmly.

Asst. U. S. Atty. William F. Tompkins, addressing the judge when the matter of possible bail was raised, described Abel as the head "of a most elaborate and intricate espionage" ring.

He said Abel was "skillfully trained in the practice of espionage, skillfully trained in the art of avoiding detection and skilled in the use of aliases."

Tompkins pointed out that Abel had employed at least four aliases.

He opposed granting bail for the defendant, saying Abel was a national of the Soviet Union, had entered this country illegally, concealed his presence here and "illegally obtained" secret information relating to our national defense.

He said there was nothing to insure that Abel would appear for trial if released on bond and he urged "the highest possible security" be given to assure the defendant's presence at the trial.

Judge Abruzzo pointed out that if the charges against Abel are proven he can be punished by death or imprisonment for any number of years. He said he would hold Abel without bail until Tuesday but that he was going to "leave it open so the attorney for Abel can make any argument" he wishes.

Poodle Hampers Patrolman's Work

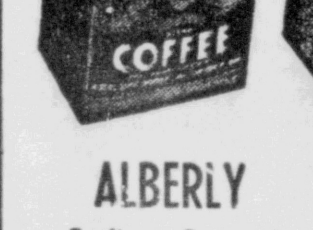

KANSAS CITY (U-P) — Motorcycle patrolman Eugene Scoville waved Mrs. Lulu Mae Johnson to the curb Thursday after clocking her at 34 miles per hour in a 25-mile zone.

"Let me see your driver's license," he said, reaching in the car window.

The woman's French poodle, Billy Echo, grabbed the officer's arm and "I thought he never was going to let loose," Mrs. Johnson said.

In the excitement Scoville almost forgot the speeding charge. Scoville got his arm treated, and Billy Echo got 10 days under observation for possible rabies.

Pomona Grange Names Officers

Plans Are Made
For Farm-City Day

Charles Cook was elected master of Pomona Grange at the meeting in the Farm Bureau auditorium Thursday night.

Other officers chosen to serve with him are: Joe Fisher, overseer; Mrs. Madge Winter, lecturer; Howard Barney, steward; Cecil Recob, assistant steward; M. S. Ralph Nisley, chaplain; Homer Wilson, treasurer; Mrs. Roscoe Smith, secretary; Kenneth Arnold, gatekeeper; Mrs. William Handley, Ceres; Mrs. Oscar Eckle, Pomona; Mrs. Cecil Smith, Flora and Mrs. Maurice Sollars, lady assistant steward.

The retiring officers are: Loren C. Johnson, master; Charles Cook, overseer; Mrs. Winter, lecturer; Howard Barney, steward; Homer Wilson, treasurer; Mrs. Roscoe Smith, secretary; Roscoe Whiteside, gatekeeper; Miss Jean Moanaw, Ceres; Mrs. Will Theobald, Pomona; Mrs. Genevieve Whitmer, Flora and Mrs. Roscoe Whiteside, lady assistant steward.

THE GRANGERS also made plans for participation in Farm-City Day at the Fairground here Aug. 22. A barbecue at noon and a program about 2 p. m. are among the features of the affair.

On the program will be numbers by the Jeffersonville High School band, a quartet from New Martinsburg and the Smith family band from Jeffersonville.

The principal speaker of the afternoon will be Chester Alspach of Canal Winchester. He is chairman of the Ohio State Grange.

Robert Terhune will be master of ceremonies.

Tickets are available from Grangers and businessmen of Washington C. H.

The Grange also voted to have an exhibit at the Ohio Pork Assn. picnic at the Fairground here Sept. 14.

An invitation was extended to attend an open house for Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Roberts in Wilmington, former Pomona members celebrating their golden wedding anniversary next Sunday.

Cold Water Tap Yields Whisky

PHILADELPHIA (U-P) — Police man, after search, found whisky in a cold water tap at a house.

Patrolman Charles Sutt headed for the cold water tap of a laundry tub, poured himself a glassful, raised it to his lips—and the search came to an end.

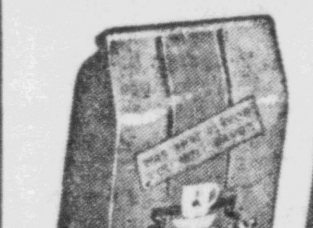

Stitt and other officers traced the "water" pipe to a buried 25 gallon drum in the backyard. The drum, they said, was about two-thirds full of "white whisky."

Youngstown Police Destroy Trapped Deer

YOUNGSTOWN (U-P) — A nearly full grown deer was destroyed by police Thursday after its front legs were broken when it became wedged in a narrow opening behind a downtown building.

The animal was found trapped between the Boardman Hotel and a furniture warehouse in an opening a little more than a foot wide. Police said it apparently jumped into the opening when it became frightened.

Mrs. Stephens Quits

retary for the Fayette County Assn. on a half-week basis or one who might want to serve both Fayette and Highland counties, a half-week for each county as Mrs. Stephens did.

Mrs. Stephens expressed her appreciation to "my advisors on the board and to the residents of this community," in her letter and said "my fine experience here has been a stepping stone to this opportunity to do a similar type of work in a neighboring area."

Before Mrs. Stephens came to Washington C. H. three years ago, she had spent seven years in the County Chest Hospital at Lansing as head of the out-patient department.

Mrs. Stephens said her work in Montgomery County will include case finding, public relations, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients, working with patients and directing, to a considerable extent, the health education program.

She gave a similar service, except on a more limited scale, here. During the three years, Mrs. Stephens was executive secretary of the Fayette County association, more than 10,000 chest X-rays were made without charge. Positive cases turned up by the X-ray program were followed through by Mrs. Stephens, the Health Department and family physicians to provide treatment to bring the disease under control.

TICE PRESIDED over the Thursday night meeting which was attended by Miss Frances White, Miss Mary Frances Snyder, Frank Grubbs, Warren Brannon, F. M. Kennedy and Leonard Miller, all members of the board.

As representative director of the Fayette County Group, Grubbs reported on the state association meeting in Columbus last June. With the report, he presented a number of suggestions for improvement educational techniques for tuberculosis control here. The board agreed to discuss these suggestions at a future meeting.

The board also reviewed some of the recent activities of the association. It was pointed out that the patient services and rehabilitation was stressed in the exhibit at the Fair here this year. Sale of handcraft articles made by Mt. Logan Sanatorium patients totaled $40, the board was told.

THE Business and Professional Women's Club here, it was announced, has purchased supplies for the occupational therapy department at Mt. Logan.

The Alpha Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, headed by Mrs. Howard Burnett Jr. advised the board it would continue to

Rayburn Hints Compromise Coming on Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (U-P) — House Speaker Rayburn said today he favors House approval of the Senate-passed civil rights bill including the jury trial provision.

If necessary, Rayburn said, he would be willing to modify the jury trial provision to limit it to voting cases only.

The fate of the bill in the House rests largely with the Republicans, he added.

In order for the House to consider the bill, Rayburn pointed out, the Rules Committee must give its approval and "Republicans on Rules will have to get a rule to take up the bill and concur in the Senate amendments."

There are eight Democrats and four Republicans on the Rules Committee and four of the Democrats are opposed to the bill. That means that at least three of the four Republicans would have to favor the measure to provide a majority for clearance of the bill.

RAYBURN SAID "the people down town (referring to Eisenhower administration officials) put a lot of other things" in the bill besides voting rights.

"If these people are for a right to vote bill," he added, "they have an opportunity to get it now."

Rayburn's willingness to restrict the jury trial provision to voting rights cases strengthened indications, already apparent, that a compromise might be upcoming.

Normal procedure would be to seek a House-Senate compromise of differences, but some Democrats have been talking of trying to push through the Senate measure, thus forcing President Eisenhower to sign or veto the bill.

No House action is in prospect before next week.

Cop Scratches Way to Solution In Postal Theft

PHILADELPHIA (U-P) — Detective Edward Pushkarwicz told a Magistrate's Court Thursday how an itch led to an arrest.

Pushkarwicz caught poison ivy from vines around a suburban post office as he was investigating the theft of a pistol and $1,338 in cash and stamps.

Scratching for a solution, the detective reasoned the thief might be similarly blistered and uncomfortable. He went to the home of a suspect, and sure enough, there was a bottle of poison ivy lotion in the bedroom. Pushkarwicz arrested 23-year-old Robert A. Lightkep.

Lightkep told the court he'd caught in the itch three weeks before the burglary. He was held without bail after another witness testified Lightkep had given him some stamps to sell.

Washington C. H. Girl Is Back From Year in School in Scotland

"The Scots have a saying: 'You have to be thrifty before you can be generous.'"

"And actually—they are both! So spoke Ann Hire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hire, 704 Yeoman St. And she ought to know."

Just back from nearly a year abroad, the youthful, attractive, globetrotter was enrolled from September until May at New College, University of Edinburgh, Scotland.

"But however thrifty they appear, they are the most hospitable people I ever met," said Ann who will be a senior at Wooster College this fall.

"SCOTTISH LIFE is less complex than ours; there is greater stress on the family and church, with less on diversion and entertainment," she recalled, with a note of approval.

"Oh yes, the standard of living is lower—it's a lot more common for a Scottish family to live in an apartment than it would be here, for example," she said.

"And there are fewer autos," she recalled. "No, not to many bicycles either."

"It's walking they are good at! They are unbeatable walkers."

MAJORING in Christian education at Wooster, Miss Hire studied theology at Edinburgh. She lived in "the digs" ("I wish I'd found out where that name came from!")—Scottish label for a private home occupied by a family and, in this case, a dozen students.

Living there and taking most of her meals with the dozen Scottish, English and American students who shared the house, she got a chance for a long look at life in another country.

"It was hard to get used to, of course," she recalled, pointing out "for one thing, the Scots eat four meals a day."

"There was breakfast, dinner, high tea (late in the afternoon) and supper about 9:30 p.m."

"High tea isn't observed in England any more so much, but in Scotland it means plenty; not just tea, but fish and chips or something of that sort."

"There's morning coffee, too, but it doesn't bear too much resemblance to the American coffee break."

GETTING USED to Scotland, she admitted, prepared her for getting used to seven other European countries in less than two months at the end of her stay abroad.

She visited England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France.

"They were all very interesting, especially Switzerland, where I spend the most time," she recalled, saying "but I'd rather live in Scotland than any place but here." "Of course, I'd still rather live here!" she added.

New Comet Visible in North Sky

NEW YORK (AP)—A newly discovered comet is blazing a fiery trail across the heavens. It has been visible to the naked eye in the northeast part of the country.

Dr. Franklin Branley, associate astronomer at the Hayden Planetarium, said today the comet was discovered Aug. 2 by a Czech astronomer named Mrkos.

Branley said the discovery had been reported to the Harvard College Observatory and that the comet has been named "Comet Mrkos-1957d."

This follows the practice of naming comets for their discoverers. Mrkos has had other comets named for him. The "1957" designates the latest from others of the same name and the "d" indicates it was the fourth comet discovered this year.

Branley said the comet, visible just before sundown, is located below the pointers of the Big Dipper or in a northwesterly direction. He said the comet had gone around the sun and now is moving away.

In Providence, R. E., Prof. Charles Smiley of Brown University saw the comet Wednesday night and said that because of its large size it could be seen better with the naked eye or field glasses than with a telescope.

Long Speeches and Hot Weather Don't Mix

Long speeches and hot summer weather do not go along together to the advantage of the average audience.

We understand this fact has been emphasized in more than one organization in Fayette County where a discussion is underway as to programs being worked out before the coming winter season.

Most of us, in planning to attend meetings during the summer months are inclined to inspect the programs to ascertain if any long addresses are scheduled and usually a sigh of relief goes forth if we are reasonably sure that a meeting is devoid of addresses which are likely to be lengthy.

Service clubs here, and doubtless in most other places, along with other organizations, usually try to avoid the necessity of scheduling any important address which is likely to be long during the hot months. They prefer such a program to be held when the weather is cooler and all members can enjoy such talks in comparative comfort.

In the hot, humid summer days members really can enjoy sessions of the various clubs for a couple of hours of relaxation without having to listen to a speaker who may have planned a long address, even though it may be quite interesting.

It will be at least several weeks more before speakers will really be in demand. By that time vacations will have ended and the weather will be cooler so that one can attend a meeting in comfort.

This is a land of good speakers. As has been said there is no country, outside of the United States, where there can be found so great a number of men or women who can deliver logical, forceful and most interesting addresses.

Most men can meet their fellow men on the common ground of public discussion. In service clubs, or perhaps other meetings, where a speaker fails to arrive, members sometimes have been called upon unexpectedly to substitute. They usually fill the bill very ably.

Locally there are many good speakers who have been called upon occasionally to discuss important topics. In service club work the members receive much practice as speakers and find the experience worth while.

Quite often a local speaker has aroused a lot of worthwhile discussion in a short talk on some local matter, or some local project. The result usually has been that members of such organizations or any other audience are inclined to remark — "Why don't we have such meetings often?"

Housewives Becoming Electric

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — The U. S. housewife is becoming more and more electric, or at least electricity-minded.

Did you know that about one out of every 10 American women now uses an electric shaver? This electrifying nugget of knowledge was disclosed in a survey which also found that 96.2 per cent of modern homes (those with wires) now have radios and 81 per cent have television sets.

In most families, however, father still has to mix his drinks and do the dishes by hand. Some 94.3 per cent of our homes are without blenders and automatic dishwashers.

Is it true that "an elephant never forgets?"

A German zoologist set out with typical Teutonic thoroughness to get the scientific answer. He found out that the elephant, which has a 13 - pound brain (slightly larger than that of the average Harvard freshman) does forget — by and large, appears to have a pretty fair memory.

He found, for example, that one lady elephant, when presented again with 13 pairs of cards she had learned before but hadn't viewed for a full year, had a recognition rating ranging from 73 to 100 per cent in 500 trials. The zoologist thought that was pretty good.

But wouldn't you like to get a rich lady elephant into a sky's-the-limit poker game, with all face cards wild?

Crusade for Freedom relays the story of the Romanian Communist who died and went to Hell. When he arrived at the entrance, he was surprised to find two floors.

On one door was the notice, "Communist hell," and on the other, "Capitalist hell."

"Which do you choose?" he was asked.

"The Communist hell, of course," he replied. "There is bound to be a fuel shortage!"

The Bordeaux section of France noted for its wine, is busting its buttons in pride because a survey found it had, proportionate to its population, the largest number of centenarians in the country.

In one parish alone (St. Julian) 50 couple had been wed 50 years or more.

Marie Roubert, who was 104, cheered the wine producers by attributing her longevity to the fact that for over a century her diet had included red wine and snails.

The prize example of virility, however, was Jean Mansard. At 99 Monsieur Mansard, who already had 9 children, married a girl of 18, who in due time bore the proud man his tenth offspring.

Anybody care for a nice cold bottle of root beer?

When he and his wife travel, A. D. Brinkerhoff of Bloomfield, N. J., likes to note down in his diary any odd or humorous signs they encounter.

Here is his favorite, posted in a tavern in rural Arizona:

A Tip to Trujillo

By George Sokolsky

The vogue of the whodunits is caused by the same psychological rejections as the vogue for pornographic and gossip magazines; it is the same rejection that makes television so important and brightens people away from controversial personalities.

It is a rejection of reality: an insistence upon escaping from the facts that face our lives. The same trend can be found in our current folk music. The reversion to barbarism is not accidental; it is part of the fear of quiet and solitude.

Today, we require noise, unbelievable noise to satisfy our needs. For were there no need for such noise, there would be no such thing on the television which is very sensitive to public desires, more so than radio or the movies ever were.

Television has become a noisy instrument because that is what the public wants, and it wants noise to avoid introspection. It is another form of escape. It is from the uncertainties of personal problems.

But the problems grow in number and in seriousness. The government has to pay 4 per cent for prime short-term bonds. There was a time when every corner storekeeper and every crackpot barell philosopher would have understood what that meant and the storekeeper would have looked to his inventory and his accounts receivable. There was a time when such characters as William Jennings Bryan or, in our day, Father Coughlin would have had much to say on such a subject.

And when to it is added the recent discovery that our gold reserve at Ft. Knox is down to 9 billions from the 28 billions with which we started in 1933, then somebody's goose would be fried by American public opinion.

But not today. We prefer to let our minds dwell upon a comparison between Marilyn Monroe and Jayne Mansfield, not too unusual dames. But if one's mind dwell on female measurements, it can not dwell at the same time on the dissipation of our gold reserve and the fact that published official statistics are often strictly phony.

The way it is done is to mark the stuff, "Earmarked," then it can be included in our reserves and make them look like a lot. But who owns the gold? Do we own it or is it earmarked for some other country because some other country owns it? And is it not true that the earmarked gold is owned by countries to which we still pay subsidies because they are broke? And is it not true that Soviet Russia owns as much gold as the United States does, and is it not a perious situation to be in?

But why bring all that up? Do you have to bring up unpleasant stuff all the time? Be smart. Only talk about what people like to hear. Say that Nasser is a bum. Nasser has no friends in the U. S. Why not pick on him? Do you always have to talk about Khrushchev? I counted, writes a reader, and you mentioned Russia 12 times in 10 articles. What did he want me to mention Ghana, Tripolitania, my grandmother or why Kim Novak eats with a fork?

It is part of our escape psychology that so many like to fill their heads with the vital statistics of inferior personalities. With whom she was out last night, where they went, the measurements of various parts of the body, in what stage of pregnancy a woman is—Good Grief! Most women have babies without advertising the subject stage by stage, from conception to parturition.

All these rejections of life's activities in which humans now engage, and they express themselves in myriad forms, are curiously enough becoming a source of ridicule by the youngsters who are in high school and college and they go steady early and will marry at the drop of an ice cream cone and take their chances on what comes next.

Well, I have had my say and the question still remains whether it is better to read the Wisdom of the Ages or Ellery Queen—to listen to Bach or to Weik's orchestra or even to Spike Jones; to read history or read of a representative calling the President of the United States a liar. I don't know, you can be an escapist and still have some manners.

Blinking Is A Warning That Eyes Are Strained

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

LIKE many of our modern automobiles, your eyes have a built-in windshield-washer and wiper. It's called blinking.

Blinking and winking are entirely different things. A blink is an involuntary reflex while a wink is a highly voluntary action.

Universal Malady

A wink—at the wrong time and to the wrong person—might bring prompt and severe damage to the eyes. The medical term for this universal malady, usually caused by a clenched fist, is "blackeye."

A blink, on the other hand, serves a useful purpose.

Blinking wipes the eyeballs clean and lubricates them at the same time. The action also serves as a relief mechanism which momentarily lessens eyestrain.

That's why the rate of blinking increases when you try to read small type, try to see through a glare or wear the wrong glasses.

Fast Action

Each blink requires only a fraction of a second. In fact, blinking is one of the body's fastest actions. During this time the eyeballs roll inward, then upward and finally return to their normal position.

Everyone doesn't blink at the same rate. The frequency varies, of course, with different tasks as well as with different persons. Eyes Are Strained

But generally when your rate of blinking increases a great deal, it means you are straining your eyes.

Usually you can tell when you are blinking more than you ordinarily do. Someone in your family is also likely to notice it.

Rest Your Eyes

This is a signal to rest your eyes for a while. If the rate of blinking doesn't subside, you'd better see your eye doctor.

We humans are pretty lucky to be able to get the relief afforded by blinking.

Snakes and chameleons, for example, can't blink at all. Neither has movable eyelids.

A chameleon's eyelids are permanently fused with only a small central opening, while a snake has a transparent membrane covering the eyes.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

J. H.: My sister had a cut on her face. It healed with a very large, red scar. Will the scar recur if she has it cut out?

Answer: Certain persons have a tendency to form large scars or keloids following an injury. Usually they do have a tendency to recur.

X-ray treatment during the healing stage may help.

WASHINGTON — The civil rights bill is like the umbrella of an eccentric old lady who stuffed it with all kinds of things, like ribbons, bottle-tops, broken combs and banana peels. The deeper you dig, the more you find.

The lengthy debate developed several provisions which brought surprise to legislators and others who hadn't realized they were in the bill.

Now there is concern about a section in the bill which was almost completely overlooked. It got a passing mention in the House debate, which lasted from June 5 to 18, and a brief mention in the Senate, which debated from July 8 to Aug. 7.

Under Section 1 of the bill, now passed by the House and Senate, a commission would be created to examine all kinds of civil rights problems for two years. It could hold hearings in the open or behind closed doors.

Subsection G of Section 1 says: Anyone who "released or used" information obtained by the commission behind closed doors, in executive session, could be fined up to $1,000 or jailed for a year.

The word "used" would seem to mean that a newspaperman who got such information — and used it — could be fined or jailed. A court might, and perhaps would, so interpret it. This raises a question of censorship of the press. How did Subsection G get into the bill and what was the purpose behind it? The Justice Department, which wrote the bill, didn't put it in. It was put in by the House Judiciary Committee before it approved the bill and sent it to the full House for a vote. This was done in an executive session of the committee.

Members of congressional committees are not supposed to talk about what goes on in executive sessions, any more than members of the proposed civil rights commission would be supposed to say what happens in their executive sessions.

Nevertheless, this writer learned: As the bill came to the committee from the Justice Department, it contained no rules for the commission's operations. So the committee members wrote in rules.

Then came the question of how to stop leaks on what happened in executive sessions of the commission. Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) proposed the $1,000 fine or year in jail for anyone who gave out or used such information. Was this aimed at newspapermen?

This writer asked the senior members of the committee, both of New York: Representatives Celler, Democrat and chairman, and Keating, the top-ranking Republican. Both said the committee was not aiming at newspapermen when it wrote in the penalty.

Both said that if this bill becomes law, they would back an amendment to exclude newspapermen from this penalty. Keating said he would propose such an amendment himself. Why not take it out now before it becomes law?

Keating and Celler said they doubt if it could be removed from the bill now because, while both houses differed on other parts of the bill, both agreed on Subsection G.

The only mention of Subsection G in 14 days of House debate came when Rep. Roosevelt (D-Calif.) on June 11 asked if the purpose of the penalty was "to protect witnesses who might appear before the commission." Celler that day said, "Yes, I think the gentleman is correct."

Then Rep. Rogers (D-Colo.), a member of Celler's committee, said the purpose was to let the commission hold truly closed-door sessions to protect innocent people from wild charges by witnesses who might appear.

In the heat of Senate debate, Subsection G was ignored until it was too late to do anything about it. Late Wednesday night, just before the bill's passage, Sen. Javits (R-N.Y.) explained his own version of the intent of the penalty.

Long Speeches and Hot Weather Don't Mix

Long speeches and hot summer weather do not go along together to the advantage of the average audience.

We understand this fact has been emphasized in more than one organization in Fayette County where a discussion is underway as to programs being worked out before the coming winter season.

Most of us, in planning to attend meetings during the summer months are inclined to inspect the programs to ascertain if any long addresses are scheduled and usually a sigh of relief goes forth if we are reasonably sure that a meeting is devoid of addresses which are likely to be lengthy.

Service clubs here, and doubtless in most other places, along with other organizations, usually try to avoid the necessity of scheduling any important address which is likely to be long during the hot months. They prefer such a program to be held when the weather is cooler and all members can enjoy such talks in comparative comfort.

In the hot, humid summer days members really can enjoy sessions of the various clubs for a couple of hours of relaxation without having to listen to a speaker who may have planned a long address, even though it may be quite interesting.

It will be at least several weeks more before speakers will really be in demand. By that time vacations will have ended and the weather will be cooler so that one can attend a meeting in comfort.

This is a land of good speakers. As has been said there is no country, outside of the United States, where there can be found so great a number of men or women who can deliver logical, forceful and most interesting addresses.

Most men can meet their fellow men on the common ground of public discussion. In service clubs, or perhaps other meetings, where a speaker fails to arrive, members sometimes have been called upon unexpectedly to substitute. They usually fill the bill very ably.

Locally there are many good speakers who have been called upon occasionally to discuss important topics. In service club work the members receive much practice as speakers and find the experience worth while.

Quite often a local speaker has aroused a lot of worthwhile discussion in a short talk on some local matter, or some local project. The result usually has been that members of such organizations or any other audience are inclined to remark — "Why don't we have such meetings often?"

Housewives Becoming Electric

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The U. S. housewife is becoming more and more electric, for at least electricity-minded.

Did you know that about one out of every 10 American women now uses an electric shaver? This electrifying nugget of knowledge was disclosed in a survey which also found that 96.2 per cent of modern homes (those with wires) now have radios and 81 per cent have television sets.

In most families, however, father still has to mix his drinks and do the dishes by hand. Some 94.3 per cent of our homes are without blenders and automatic dishwashers.

Is it true that "an elephant never forgets?"

A German zoologist set out with typical Teutonic thoroughness to get the scientific answer. He found out that the elephant, which has a 13-pound brain (slightly larger than that of the average Harvard freshman) does forget — by and large, appears to have a pretty fair memory.

He found, for example, that one lady elephant, when presented again with 13 pairs of cards she had learned before but hadn't viewed for a full year, had a recognition rating ranging from 73 to 100 per cent in 500 trials. The zoologist thought that was pretty good.

But wouldn't you like to get a rich lady elephant into a sky-scraper limit poker game, with all face cards wild?

Crusade for Freedom relays the story of the Romanian Communist who died and went to Hell. When he arrived at the entrance, he was surprised to find two doors.

On one door was the notice, "Communist hell," and on the other, "Capitalist hell."

"Which do you choose?" he was asked.

"The Communist hell, of course," he replied. "There is bound to be a fuel shortage!"

The Bordeaux section of France noted for its wine, is busting its buttons in pride because a survey found it had, proportionate to its population, the largest number of centenarians in the country.

Marie Roubert, who was 104, cheered the wine producers by attributing her longevity to the fact that for over a century her diet had included red wine and snails.

The prize example of virility, however, was Jean Mansard. At 99 Monsieur Mansard, who already had 9 children, married a girl of 18, who in due time bore the proud man his tenth offspring.

publican. Both said the committee was not aiming at newspapers when it wrote in the penalty.

Both said that if this bill becomes law, they would back an amendment to exclude newspapers from this penalty. Keating said he would propose such an amendment himself. Why not take it out now before it becomes law?

Keating and Celler said they doubt if it could be removed from the bill now because, while both houses differed on other parts of the bill, both agreed on Subsection G.

The only mention of Subsection G in 14 days of House debate came when Rep. Roosevelt (D-Calif.) on June 11 asked if the purpose of the penalty was "to protect witnesses who might appear before the commission." Celler that day said, "Yes, I think the gentleman is correct."

Then Rep. Rogers (D-Colo.), a member of Celler's committee, said the purpose was to let the commission hold truly closed-door sessions to protect innocent people from wild charges by witnesses who might appear.

In the heat of Senate debate, Subsection G was ignored until it was too late to do anything about it. Late Wednesday night, just before the bill's passage, Sen. Javits (R-NY) explained his own version of the intent of the penalty.

Birth of Twins Routine for Dad

PINE RIDGE, S. C. (AP) — Birth of their seventh set of twins in 14 years to the James Big Crows was so routine their father didn't even bother to go to the hospital to place a corridor.

"It wasn't any surprise; the doc- tor said it probably would be dou- bles again," said Mrs. Marcella Big Crow. "You sort of get used to it after a while."

Big Crow, a temporarily unem- ployed farmhand, was philosophi- cal about Tuesday's arrival of the new twins, who round out a fam- ily of 15 children.

He was concerned most about finding room for them in his two- room shack.

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

For God

Here men give evidence of some deep, deep decisions. They are casting their lots for God. In a heart-to-heart talk a father gives his witness for the deepest faith he possesses. He has been successful in business because he kept the approval of his God. Now he wants to know from his sons if he can count on them to perpetuate the integrity, justice and godliness which marked the history of his business. God wants to know that of you, too, Mister. This is a moment of high decision with these men. Maybe you are making important decisions too. One thing for sure... your success will be greater when God is your Senior Partner.

If you are "For God" you will attend His church and support His cause on earth... be For God.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Birth of Twins Routine for Dad

PINE RIDGE, S. C. (AP) — Birth of their seventh set of twins in 14 years to the James Big Crows was so routine their father didn't even bother to go to the hospital to pace a corridor.

"It wasn't any surprise; the doctor said it probably would be doubles again," said Mrs. Marcella Big Crow. "You sort of get used to it after a while."

Big Crow, a temporarily unemployed farmhand, was philosophical about Tuesday's arrival of the new twins, who round out a family of 15 children.

He was concerned most about finding room for them in his two-room shack.

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

For God

Here men give evidence of some deep, deep decisions. They are casting their lots for God. In a heart-to-heart talk a father gives his witness for the deepest faith he possesses. He has been successful in business because he kept the approval of his God. Now he wants to know from his sons if he can count on them to perpetuate the integrity, justice and godliness which marked the history of his business. God wants to know that of you, too, Mister. This is a moment of high decision with these men. Maybe you are making important decisions too. One thing for sure... your success will be greater when God is your Senior Partner. If you are "For God" you will attend His church and support His cause on earth... be For God.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Three Circles Hold Sessions

Three Circles of the Women's Assn. of First Presbyterian Church held sessions Wednesday afternoon.

CIRCLE TWO

Eleven members of Circle Two met at the home of Mrs. Jesse Robinson. Mrs. Maryon Mark led the group in prayer for missionaries in foreign lands.

A short business session was conducted by the leader, Mrs. John Bailey, during which she announced a district meeting will be held at the church Oct. 4. The group decided to participate in the "Fellowship of the Least Coin," a movement started abroad. This is a plan where each woman will set aside the least coin of her country each month and Mrs. Bailey said it is hoped this will become worldwide.

The program, which consisted of a study of people and conditions in Southeast Asia, was presented by Mrs. Mark.

Miss Mae Duffee and Mrs. Maude Howland assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

CIRCLE THREE

Mrs. Arthur Finley entertained 12 members of Circle Three at her home and she was assisted by Mrs. Ruah Harlow, Mrs. Hoy Simmons, Mrs. Mayme Murray, Mrs. Senath Thompson and Mrs. W. M. Barker in serving a dessert course preceding the meeting.

Mrs. W. F. Rettig opened the session by reading from the Psalms and offering prayer for missionaries.

During the business session it was announced that an all-day district meeting will be held Oct. 5 which will convene at 9:30 a. m. with dinner being served at noon.

Mrs. Harlow was one of seven women from the church who spent a week attending religious educational classes at Wooster. She gave a talk on her experiences there. After offering prayer Mrs. J. H. Steele read "The Mary Calvin Story" for the program. The article told of the experiences of Mary Calvin when she visited for two weeks in each of the following places: Thailand, Hong Kong and Indonesia.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

CIRCLE FOUR

Mrs. Peter Smetzer was hostess to members of Circle Four.

Mrs. Gene Sagar opened the meeting by reading names of missionaries in the world book of prayer and offering prayer for them.

The leader, Mrs. Charles Hire, conducted the business session, and plans were made to serve a luncheon at the church Sept. 24 for visiting Presbyterian ministers and guests.

"The Church and Southeast Asia" was the theme of the program.

Miss Ollie Swope Entertains Garden Club

Twelve members of the Buckeye Garden Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Ollie Swope with Mrs. Zoe Garinger as co-hostess.

The president, Mrs. Garinger, opened the meeting with the reading of a poem, "Understanding." After a short business session, Mrs. Emmett Kelley read an interesting paper on flower arranging in regard to color, condition, containers and a suitable place in the home.

Mrs. Garinger read a poem, "Garden Griefs" and then closed the meeting.

During the social hour the hostesses served refreshments to the following members, Mrs. Jean Brown, Mrs. Verne Foster, Miss Catherine Gossard, Mrs. Anna Groff, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Thayne McCoy, Mrs. Hazel Moyer, Mrs. Roy Oswald, Mrs. Fred Oswald and Mrs. C. E. Hughes.

Mrs. Stackhouse Entertains WSWS

Mrs. Carl Stackhouse entertained 14 members of the Spring Grove WSWS at her home Thursday afternoon for their annual picnic. Guests included were Mrs. Leo Cummings, Miss Rosalee Butcher, Janie Smith, Diane Pain and Mrs. Mollie Howard of Wilmington.

The president, Mrs. Roscoe Smith, led in the group singing of "My God and I" and a prayer in unison followed.

For the program Mrs. Smith read an article entitled "A Missionary Pilgrimage Travelogue," and Mrs. Neil Connor read an article from the Home Missions magazine on "How to Make Money for the Society."

Janie Smith gave an interesting account of her camping trip near Cambridge.

Mrs. Robert Parrett offered the closing prayer.

Garden Club Meets For Picnic

Members of the Washington Junior Garden Club were guests of the Washington Garden Club at its annual picnic Wednesday evening at the City Park. Mr. Richard Curl gave the invocation.

During the brief business session, the president, Mrs. Elza Woodruff, announced that all membership dues have to be forwarded to the Ohio Assn., by Oct. 1. A discussion followed regarding the club's flower show which will be held the last week in August.

Magazines and books were collected by Mrs. Arthur Herbolzheimer and will be presented to the hospital. Members present gave a donation towards supplementing the club's treasury.

4 Cincy News Stores Hit for Selling Trash

Homecoming To Be Held at Jeff Church

JEFFERSONVILLE—Plans for the 35th annual homecoming at the First Baptist Church of Jeffersonville today are beginning to take form under the guidance of the board of deacons, Mrs. Maggie Burns, Jerry Simmons and Clyde Harris, and the committees.

The homecoming will be held, at the church the first Sunday in September. A gathering of 100 to 150 is expected, many of them from a distance.

Mrs. Burns said: "This always has been a big thing for the church."

There will be the regular Sunday worship service in the morning, a dinner served at noon in the church by the women of the congregation, and a special preaching service in the afternoon by the Rev. A. L. Mason, a guest minister from Columbus.

The morning service will be conducted by the church's new pastor, the Rev. C. L. Terry of Columbus.

The Rev. Mr. Terry, who succeeds the Rev. J. D. White, will conduct services every Sunday at 11 a. m. following Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. He will continue to drive back and forth from his home in Columbus, one of the deacons said.

The Rev. Mr. White, who served the Jeffersonville church for five years, has been reassigned by the conference to the Jamestown Circuit. His home was in Springfield.

Pioneers Hardy? No, Says Historian

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The popular conception of the American pioneer as a hardy specimen of near physical perfection is largely a myth, a Tampa history teacher maintains.

"A formidable number of the pioneers... were miserable, sickly creatures," Dr. J. Ryan Beiser of the University of Tampa said Thursday.

"Frequent accidents the effects of exposure, decaying vegetables, swamps, poor food habits, lack of sanitation and hygiene, and inadequate knowledge for prevention and cure of disease" outweighed the natural health benefits of an active outdoor life," he added.

Family Picnic Held by Two Staunton Groups

Members of the WSCS and Willing Workers Class of Staunton Methodist Church met Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haines for their annual family picnic. Ten members and their families were present.

Mrs. Enzoel Lamb read from the Book of Isaiah for the devotion.

During the WSCS business session, round robin cards were signed to be sent to Mrs. Rosetta Boyer and Mr. W. A. Grimm who are ill. The activities report was read and showed 18 visitations made, 28 cards sent, six flowers donated and 11 donations.

A short business meeting was held by the Willing Workers Class. The September meeting of the WSCS will be held at the home of Mrs. J. O. Wilson and the Willing Workers Class meets in September with Mrs. Herbert Perrill.

Guests were Miss Effie Henkle, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morris, Mrs. Nina Smith, Susan Foster, Judy and Melody Haines, Gary and Dean Sells and Rhonda Wilson.

Now Is The Time

The Washington Garden Club suggests that gardeners who want bulbs for fall planting should order them early. Bulbs will soon be on the market.

Early August is about the last date for applying fertilizer to roses for the year.

Mum plants can be moved or set out anytime now. Water them well after planting.

August is a good month to divide and re-set day lilies.

Late summer is a good time to begin building a composite pile.

With most kind of evergreens August is probably the best month of the year to set them out on your lawn.

Remember water evaporates at this time of year. Water deeply and thoroughly.

August is the time to go over your lawn, destroying insects and keeping weeds from seeding and weakening the stand of grass.

Don't let your flower garden run down, as so many people tend to do at this season. Keep tall flowers well staked and cut out all your dead stalks.

Feed and disbud dahlias now. Feed and cultivate peonies now for next year's bloom.

Do not mulch oriental poppies. If you have not done so, divide iris now when it becomes crowded.

Pansies, forget-me-not and English daisies, are sturdier plants if sown this month.

Keep the bird bath filled, especially if a drought comes.

Don't forget that fall is just around the corner.

Ladies Bridge Club Meets Thursday

Twenty-eight members of the Ladies Bridge Club met at the Country Club Thursday afternoon. As usual a luncheon preceded the rounds of play.

Mrs. James Chakeres was the recipient of a prize for high score and the prize for second high went to Mrs. Howard Fogle. Mrs. C. D. Young won a prize as winner of a special game.

Mrs. Zella Kutchback, of Cayuga, Ind., was a guest. On the committee in charge were Mrs. J. J. Kelley, Mrs. Thomas Gormley and Mrs. Thomas Trovillo.

Pocket mice that live in the pure-white gypsum crystal dunes near Alamo, New Mexico are pure white in color. Mice of the same species, who live outside the dunes are still brown.

Pioneers Hardy? No, Says Historian

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The popular conception of the American pioneer as a hardy specimen of near physical perfection is largely a myth, a Tampa history teacher maintains.

"A formidable number of the pioneers... were miserable, sickly creatures," Dr. J. Ryan Beiser of the University of Tampa said Thursday.

"Frequent accidents, the effects of exposure, decaying vegetables, swamps, poor food habits, lack of sanitation and hygiene, and inadequate knowledge for prevention and cure of disease" outweighed the natural health benefits of an active outdoor life," he added.

Member Drive Set by Legion

Goal Is 500 by Oct. 22 Deadline

The Paul H. Hughey post, American Legion, here hopes to recapture a trophy it held two years ago as it enters the 1958 Legion membership drive next week, Norman Boop, the commander, said.

To win the trophy, the post must have the highest percentage of quota of any Ohio post in its size classification. Quota this year, based on an average of the past five years' membership, will be "about 450," Boop said.

"So we're shooting for 500, just to make sure," he explained. Campaign deadline is midnight Oct. 22.

A letter will be sent to all present members and all of last year's members who did not renew their membership this year "by the end of the week," he said.

Further plans for the campaign will be discussed at the Legion's Monday meeting, he said. F. Paul Souther, Legion vice-commander and membership chairman, will be in charge of the overall operation.

Former WCH Man Registered Architect

David Kyle Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Adams, 429 E. Paint St., who recently passed the state board examination and was granted a license to practice as a registered architect, is now associated with Dan Carmichael, architect, 5 E. Long St., Columbus.

Adams, a 1947 graduate of Washington C. H. High School, recently completed plans for two new buildings at Battelle Institute, Columbus, and is now working on plans for a new school in the northern part of the state.

He was graduated from Ohio State University in 1953 and served two years with the Army in Austria.

Liquor Aide Selected

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ray Mollenkop, former Cambridge real estate dealer, has been appointed head of a new section of the Ohio Department of Liquor Control to handle real estate affairs.

GIFT TO HOSPITAL—Women of the Moose are shown presenting a portable aspirator, to Fayette Memorial Hospital, Miss Christine Evans, second from right, hospital administrator, pointed out that such contributions by civic-minded organizations will help make the hospital of greater service to the entire community. Miss Evans demonstrates the aspirator frequently used after surgical operations to Mrs. Hazel Bonier, right, while Mrs. Mabel Archer, left, and Mrs. Ethel Smith look on.

Barbecue and Program Set For Farm-City Meet Aug. 22

A beef barbecue and a Grange-sponsored program will be highlights of this year's Farm - City Good-Will Roundup at 12:30 p. m. Aug. 22 on the Fayette County Fairground.

Under the direction of Roscoe Whiteside, all the Granges in the county are taking part in program planning. Chester A. Allspaugh, past chaplain of the Ohio State Grange and a present member of the State Grange executive committee, will be the guest speaker.

Planners will dig their own pit and barbecue the beef at the site of the roundup.

GROWING OUT of the old Fayette County Corn Show, the roundup took the form of a good - will banquet last year. Like the banquet, this year's barbecue will be open to farmers, businessmen and their wives.

H. H. Denton is general chairman for the event, Ray Brandenburg, Walter Driesbach and William Stoughton are aiding in planning.

Tickets are being sold by the committee, the Chamber of Commerce, the Granges and the Washington C. H. Jaycees.

Gambling Halted In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Erskine Maiden Jr. has issued a temporary restraining order forbidding gambling at three establishments which the city law department is seeking to have padlocked.

Owners of the establishments, Variety News Stand, Carlyle Grocery and Family Wine Shop, were given until Sept. 7 to file answers.

The news stand, located within two blocks of City Hall, was described by police as headquarters of the numbers racket here. It is under a 14-day suspension of its beer and wine sales permit because of a gambling arrest there.

Business Notes

The Credit Bureau of Fayette County, formerly at 105½ N. Main St., is in its new location in the American Legion Building, 212 N. Fayette St. Norman Boop, the owner, announces.

G. C. Murphy Co. net earnings for the first six months of 1957 were $2,782,440, slightly below the $3,007,014 reported for 1956, although still above the $2,712,935 earned in the same period of 1955.

In the first six months of 1957 the Company opened 5 new stores compared with one in 1956, and installed its quick-service equipment and operation in 115 stores. July sales increased 6.6 per cent, bringing the total sales increase to 3.4 per cent.

4-H Clubs To Give Program at Church

The 4-H club members in Wayne Township are to be in charge of a program at the First Methodist Church in Good Hope next Sunday. It will be held at 10 a. m., instead of 10:30 a. m., the customary time for starting Sunday School.

An effort is being made to get word to all 4-H club members in the township to come and take part in the program.

Lowell Woods, superintendent of the Sunday School and a 4-H club advisor, said: "We would like to have every 4-H club member here and we hope those who are not contacted will come anyway. . . they're expected, although it is nearly impossible to notify every one of them."

There will be no regular church service Sunday, since the pastor, the Rev. Harold Hargus is on his vacation.

Mrs. Dana Kellenberger, a 4-H club advisor, is in charge of the program.

Many of the young people will participate in the program. Those who do not have parts in it will occupy special pews reserved for them. They all will be recognized.

U. S. Business Cautious About Fourth Quarter

Various Reasons Cited for Slow Look at End of '57

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Business is taking a new look today at the fourth quarter of the year.
Perhaps it's just the summer weather. Perhaps it's the less reassuring statistics than had been expected. Perhaps it's the consumer's reluctance to snap up the goods that used to lure him. Or it could be worry over rising industrial costs and what they're doing to profits.
But the element of caution has crept in again and the early expressions of all-out confidence in a new business boom this fall have lost some of their positiveness.

Actually, there are few concrete signs yet as to which way business is going: Up briskly, off a little, or just sideways. And the present level of business and general well being is high indeed.
But the worrying kind can find things to fret about. Here are some:

Factory output and employment has slid off from its peak. The usual summer slump is a bit deeper this year with extended vacations announced in some industries because demand for their products is slow.

The steel industry cheers each incoming order, but its hopes for a big pickup in demand from its best customers hasn't materialized as yet.

Almost all the other metals are suffering from continuing price weakness and cutbacks in output or shutdowns.

Shipments in many industries have been running ahead of new orders.

Appliance makers until recently have had been looking for a pickup in sales to offset the slump early in the year and to pull 1957 above 1956. Now some of them say the pick-up, if it comes, will be late. Several firms have slashed output to bring inventories into line.

Auto makers have sold a lot of cars but not as many as they thought they would some months back. Their big chance to gain will come when the public reacts to the new models this fall.

Some think it may be next year before the public gets out from under the last of the monthly payments taken on in the 1955 buying spree and really starts buying new cars and appliances with anything like its old abandon.

The rise in stocks of goods and materials in factories and stores worries some observers. Manufacturing and trade inventories are five billion dollars higher than a year ago. They have increased in the last few months after being cut back earlier in the year.

Some hope this means manufacturers and merchants are more confident about the fall prospects. Others wonder if it doesn't mean that the goods aren't moving as expected. And some point out that if the consumer starts buying more in the fall there will be stocks to move before new orders are placed with the prime producers.

Business for the moment is just being a little more cautious and less sure that the boom is in the bag.

Installment Buying For Cities Ruled OK

COLUMBUS (AP)—Atty. Gen. William Saxbe has ruled municipalities may buy property for their use on the installment plan.

He said they may buy machinery and equipment, after bids have been received, and agree to pay for them in installments over a period of several years.

State Auditor James A. Rhodes had asked the opinion.

DAVID T. HERRMAN

ASC Executive To Speak at Rotary Session

David T. Herrman, administrative officer for the Ohio ASC Committee of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, is to be the speaker at the Washington Rotary Club luncheon meeting next Tuesday at the Country Club.

He is well known over Ohio for his work in agricultural stabilization and conservation and has a number of personal friends in this area.

Herrman has served in his present capacity since August 1953. For 17 years prior to that time he was state co-ordinator and later assistant state conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service.

Herrman was agricultural agent in Auglaize County from September, 1923 until November 1928, and in Butler County from November 1929 to September 1936. He was Secretary to the assistant secretary of agriculture in Washington during the intervening months.

BEFORE his employment by the Ohio Agricultural Extension Service, he was a livestock specialist for the South Carolina Extension Service for two years.

He went to that state from a position as graduate assistant in the animal husbandry department at Ohio State University.

Herrman was born in Columbus in 1898, and spent all but two years of his early life in Franklin County. He and his wife live in Columbus.

Cleveland Bar To Hear 'Court'

Writer To Outline Sheppard Case Views

CLEVELAND (AP)—A member of the Cuyahoga County Bar Assn. said today mystery writer Erle Stanley Gardner will explain his "Court of Last Resort" at the association's Sept. 18 luncheon meeting.

Attorney Ronald Benjamin, in charge of the program for the meeting, said Gardner had accepted an invitation to talk and also declared he was prime to answer any questions on the "court's" activities in the Marilyn Sheppard murder case.

The "court," a magazine promotion, had sponsored a lie detector test for Donald J. Wedler, a fugitive from a Florida road camp who "confessed" recently to the July 4, 1954, murder after being recaptured at Deland, Fla.

After declaring that Wedler appeared to be telling the truth or what he thought was the truth, Gardner got an okay from Ohio Gov. C. William O'Neill to give a lie detector test to Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, now serving a life sentence in Ohio Penitentiary for the murder of his wife. Sheppard maintains he is innocent of the slaying in his Bay Village home.

Gov. O'Neill later refused a lie detector test for Dr. Sheppard, saying there was some doubt as to the validity of Wedler's confession.

Coroner Samuel R. Gerber, who questioned Wedler and said flatly he was lying, is a member of the association and has said he will attend the luncheon meeting, Benjamin said.

The attorney said Gardner was being asked so the association could learn details of how the "Court of Last Resort" operates. The "court" seems to encroach on the jurisdiction of legal courts, said Benjamin, adding that Gardner should have the opportunity to present "his side of the story."

Ohio Pork Queen To Reign over Sept. 14 Picnic

A Pork Queen will be selected to reign over events of the day of the All-Ohio Pork Picnic scheduled to be held Saturday, September 14, at the Fayette County Fairground.

Each county in the state may enter one candidate.

The following rules are to be observed in selecting the queen representative from each county:

1. The girl selected must be single, age 15 to 21 inclusive as of Sept. 14, 1957.
2. She must be active in 4-H Club work as a member or leader, of Future Homemakers of America.
3. She must be selected and entered as a contestant on or before Sept. 7.
4. She must present herself in "Dress-Up" dress and not in formal attire.
5. Decision of the judges will be final.

ENTRIES are to be sent to Herbert Sollars, 609 S. Main St., Washington, C. H.

The girl must be present at the final judging which will be held at the Pork Picnic. At that time she must read or give orally a short essay, not to exceed two minutes, on one of the following subjects:

1. How to promote more pork consumption.
2. The value of pork in nutrition.
3. What the housewife can do to help the pork market.

Ohio Parachutist Injured in Drop

DAYTON (AP)—Capt. Mervin E. Sheriff, 34, of Ashland, was in satisfactory condition in Wright-Patterson Air Force Base Hospital today.

He suffered two broken vertebrae when he was forced to parachute from his crippled National Guard F84 jet Thursday seconds before it crashed into a swamp near Alpena, Mich., where the Air Guard is undergoing training.

Skunk in Fish Pond Is Problem

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Authorities wouldn't help but his own ingenuity solved Angelo Stoulis' problem—how to get the skunk out of his fish pond.

The unwelcome visitor was found in the dry bottom of the Stoulis pond in nearby Haverford Township. The police said it was a smelly case but out of their line. The SPCA said dogs wouldn't ride in their wagon anymore if they hauled the skunk in. The game warden said it was always open season on skunks.

Finally Stoulis got a board and nailed 11 slats across it. He theorized the skunk would hike out when he got the chance. The skunk took him up on the idea.

U. S. Business Cautious About Fourth Quarter

Various Reasons
Cited for Slow
Look at End of '57

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Business is taking a new look today at the fourth quarter of the year.

Perhaps it's just the summer weather. Perhaps it's some less reassuring statistics than had been expected. Perhaps it's the consumer's reluctance to snap up the goods that used to lure him. Or it could be worry over rising industrial costs and what they're doing to profits.

But the element of caution has crept in again and the early expressions of all-out confidence in a new business boom this fall have lost some of their positive luster.

Actually, there are few concrete signs yet as to which way business is going: Up briskly, off a little, or just sideways. And the present level of business and general well being is high indeed. But the worrying kind can find things to fret about. Here are some:

Factory output and employment has slid off from its peak. The usual summer slump is a bit deeper this year with extended vacations announced in some industries because demand for their products is slow.

The steel industry cheers each incoming order, but its hopes for a big pickup in demand from its best customers hasn't materialized as yet.

Almost all the other metals are suffering from continuing price weakness and cutbacks in output or shutdowns.

Shipments in many industries have been running ahead of new orders. Appliance makers until recently have had been looking for a pickup in sales to offset the slump early in the year and to pull 1957 above 1956. Now some of them say the pickup, if it comes, will be late. Several firms have slashed output to bring inventories into line.

Auto makers have sold a lot of cars but not as many as they thought they would some months back. Their big chance to gain will come when the public reacts to the new models this fall.

Some think it may be next year before the public gets out from under the last of the monthly payments taken on in the 1955 buying spree and really starts buying new cars and appliances with anything like its old abandon.

The rise in stocks of goods and materials in factories and stores worries some observers. Manufacturing and trade inventories are five billion dollars higher than a year ago. They have increased in the last few months after being cut back earlier in the year. Some hope this means manufacturers and merchants are more confident about the fall prospects. Others wonder if it doesn't mean that the goods aren't moving as expected. And some point out that if the consumer starts buying more in the fall there will be stocks to move before new orders are placed with the prime producers.

Business for the moment is just being a little more cautious and less sure that the boom is in the bag.

National Loop Race Suddenly Becomes Walk

Milwaukee Well Ahead As Cincinnati Again Rolls Over, Plays Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
What are those other National League contenders trying to do, lure the Milwaukee Braves into a false feeling of security?

Any way you look at it, the scramble suddenly has opened up and the Braves are on top with a "whopping" 2½-game lead—the largest of the season. They made it as Cincinnati rolled over again, 5-3 Thursday and the seventh-place Chicago Cubs bopped the second-place St. Louis Cardinals 4-3 for a three-game sweep.

Third-place Brooklyn is five games back, skidding with a 12-3 clobbering from the New York Giants. Cincinnati and Philadelphia now are tied for fourth, seven games behind, after the Phillies defeated Pittsburgh 6-3 while the Redlegs lost for the 11th time in 12 games with Milwaukee this season.

If this is the breakup in the NL log jam, the Braves should know by Sunday night—after a three-game set at St. Louis.

In the American League, Washington made it two in a row over New York 6-1 and trimmed the Yankees' lead to five games as Chicago's second-place White Sox defeated Kansas City 7-4.

Baltimore regained fifth place from Detroit by defeating Boston 3-1 while the Tigers lost to Cleveland 3-1.

Red Schoendienst, the second baseman who was supposed to have brought the Braves the pennant along with his bat and glove when the Giants traded him to Milwaukee June 15, got the job done Thursday. He lined a two-run single in the eighth, breaking a 3-3 tie and bringing Lew Burdette his 10th victory.

Ex-Brave George Gorn hampered his 24th home run and Frank Robinson swatted his 18th in the eighth to junk a 3-1 Milwaukee lead. Reliever Raul Sanchez lost it, loading the bases with two walks and a hit batsman ahead of Schoendienst's hit.

The Cubs won six in a row for the first time since 1955 with a two-run seventh out southpaw Wilmer Mizell that cracked a two-all tie. Singles by Moe Drabowsky, the young right-hander who won his eighth, and Bobby Adams brought in the runs. Dave Hillman blanked the Cards after relieving Drabowsky when a walk and two singles gave the Cards a run in the eighth. Del Ennis had a two-run homer for St. Louis while Stan Musial had two singles and regained the bat lead at 3-3.

The Giants completed a sweep of the last three games in the four-game set with the Dodgers by scoring four runs in the first against ex-pal Sal Maglie. They had 14 hits in all, counting home runs by Willie Mays (26) and Hank Sauer (16). Ruben Gomez won his 12th with a seven-hit job. Philadelphia gave Curt Simmons a 6-0 lead with three runs in the sixth, two on Gran Hamner's home run, but the southpaw needed relief help in the ninth to win his 11th. Bob Miller nailed it, after Bob Skinner's home run triggered a three-run Pirate rally. Vern Law lost it.

Russ Kemmerer had given the Yankees only five singles and led 6-0 going into the ninth. Then a single, walk and Enos Slaughter's double saved New York from what would have been its second shut-out of the year. Art Ditmar lost it.

Billy Pierce, the AL's only 15-game winner, gave way to Gerry Staley when the A's scored one in the fourth and cut Chicago's lead to 6-4. Staley blanked 'em on five hits the rest of the way for a 3-0 record. Earl Torgeson, 3-for-4, drove in five runs and hit a pair of homers—the first a three-run shot in a five-run third against winless Rip Coleman.

Billy O'Dell gave up Dick Gerrert's home run in the seventh and needed relief help because of a sore arm, but joined Pierce, Cleveland's Don Mossi and Yankee Bobby Shantz as the only left-handers to beat Boston this year. Tito Francona's RBI triple capped a two-run third that clinched it for the Orioles against Mike Forreles. Ted Williams had two of

Second in Row For Kernels

Two wins on successive evenings put the Kernels right in the thick of the Little League championship scramble.

They followed up Wednesday evening's 9 to 7 victory over the Cubs with a 14 to 5 conquest of the Flashes at Wilson Field Thursday night.

Those two victories gave the Kernels a record of 6 wins and 3 losses. That stretch drive tightened the race between the Kernels and Realtors, who have a 7-2 record as they get set for their Saturday night tussle with the Cubs.

Still in contention are the Cowboys with a 5-3 record. They meet the Jets tonight.

The Kernels collected 16 hits off the combined offerings of Armbrust and Curtis while Burnett was holding the Kernels to 5 safeties.

Two Kernels, Armbrust, the first baseman, and Thompson, the catcher, clouted homers.

Outsiders Win Top Laurels in Pacing Derby

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two outsiders upset the classy 10-horse field in the $21,000 Grandview Pacing Derby at Grandview Raceway Thursday night.

A record $128.80 was returned by B Haven who went to the post at odds of 63-1. The seven-year-old pacer turned the first mile heat on the half-mile track in 2:01.1.

The second heat went to Diamond Hal. At odds of 16-1, he returned $39 when he won in 2:00.2. The favorite, Gold Worthy, finished second in the first heat and failed to show in the second round. Adios Harry was third in the second heat after a sixth-place finish in the first heat.

The first heat was a photo finish with B Haven nosing out Gold Worthy and Steamfin Demon in that order. Others finished this way: Diamond Hal, Duane Hanover, Adios Harry, Dale Frost, Belle Action, Times Square and Flaming Arrow.

In the second heat, Dale Frost finished second to Diamond Hal with Adios Harry third. Steamfin Demon was fifth.

Lionettes Defeat Girls from Jeff

A big 8-run third inning was enough to give the Lionettes a victory over the Jeffersonville girls in a softball game here Thursday, but they added 7 runs in three other innings to take a 15 to 7 decision.

The lineups (runs and hits) were: Lionettes—Blades 2-2; P. Garrison 2-1; Rohmer 3-3; Cupp 2-3; C. Garrison 1-2; Bainter 1-2; Baker 1-2; Karney 2-2 and Fox 1-2. Jeffersonville—McDonald 1-2; Christopherson 0-0; McClaskie 2-2; Coe 1-1; Lovett 1-1; J. Ratliff 0-2; C. Ratliff 0-0; Young 1-1; and Steinmetz 1-1.

Boston's six hits, hiking his bat mark to 390.

Vic Wertz drove in two runs with a homer and long fly for the Tribe as Ray Narleski took a 9-1 record with a six-hitter. Duke Maas was the loser.

Birdie Says Reds Not Out Of Race Yet

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Birdie Tophets says don't discount his Cincinnati Redlegs from the National League pennant chase despite three straight losses to Milwaukee's Braves.

"We're not conceding a thing," he said after Thursday's 5-3 defeat.

But he added, "By the end of the week we could be in serious trouble."

The trouble that the Reds were in Thursday was mainly a result of the pitching variety.

Redleg starter Joe Nuxhall had held the Braves to seven hits for six innings, then yielded to a pinch-hitter.

Reliever Raul Sanchez started off strong, retiring the first three batters he faced.

But in the eighth inning, he got into trouble, hitting one batsman, walking two others, and then gave up a single to Red Schoendienst that produced Milwaukee's two-run winning margin.

Frankie Robinson and George Crowe had laced successive home runs in the eighth inning to hoist the Reds even, 3-3.

But the Redlegs went down in order in the ninth.

A single by Nuxhall got the Rhinelanders off to a 1-0 lead in the third inning. The Reds filled the bases on singles by Johnny Temple and Don Hoak, and punched the run over on Jerry Lynch's sacrifice fly.

But the Braves took a 3-1 lead in the fourth inning on three hits, the first of them Del Crandall's home run that caused Nuxhall to fling his glove toward first base in disgust.

Two Brave singles sandwiched around a walk made it 2-1 and the third run came in on Schoendienst's sacrifice.

Hart is Favored To Trip Atkins

CLEVELAND (AP)—Although third-ranked Virgil Atkins is six notches above Sugar Hart in the most recent Ring Magazine welterweight ratings, bettors have made Hart a 7-5 favorite for their televised bout tonight in Cleveland's Public Hall.

Matchmaker Larry Atkins thinks the odds makers are going against the experts because of Hart's frequent and impressive TV battles. Tonight's 10-round bout will be on NBC radio-TV at 9 p.m., EST.

2 Ohio Girls Win Wightman Berths

NEW YORK (AP)—Two Ohio girls, Carolyn Wilkoff of Middletown and Gwyneth Thomas of Shaker Heights, Thursday were named to the United States' 1957 Junior Wightman Cup tennis squad.

Judy Hagan, also of Middletown, received honorable mention.

The group will compete in the Eastern Grass Court tournaments.

Mains Clinch Title Of Little Minor Loop

The Little Minor League baseball title was all wrapped up by the Mains Thursday evening with a 10 to 1 victory over the Redlegs at Wilson Field. The Mains clinched the honor with a record of 15 wins and only one loss.

Dick Long went all the way on the mound for the Mains. He was nipped for only 4 hits and gave up only 4 walks while fanning 13 Redlegs. It was his sixth win without a defeat.

Marlin led the Redleg attack with 2 hits in 3 trips, half of his team's safeties.

Prston, Goldsberry, Dillard and Long each got 2 for 3 for the Mains.

The Lineups were: Mains—Penrod 2b-rf; Washburn lf; Preston ss; Goldsberry ss; Dillard cf; Long p; Snyder 2b; Shoults c; Satchell lf; Foraker rf; and Link lf.

Redlegs—Flowers 3b; Kellog rf; Marlin cf; Orner lf; Streitenberger ss; Lindsay cf; Deiber lf; Blade p; Keras lf; Gtewood 2b; Downs 2b-rf; Wilson lf; Whited rf; Adams cf; Bennett rf; Penwell lf; Coffman 2b and Sword 3b.

Close Cage Game Won by Evans Team

One of the tightest games to date in the recreation league basketball tourney was won, 47 to 45, by the cagers led by Bill Evans at the community park Thursday. The victims in the see-saw tussle were the boys led by Tom McCoy.

The Evans outfit took a 16-9 lead in the first period, but the McCoy's whittled it down by outscoring it 7-5 and 14-10 in the next two periods. But a comeback in the last period in which Evans scored 16 to 15 for the McCoy's turned the tide in the last minute of play.

The lineup (field goals fouls and total points) were:

Evans—Evans 4-8; Wood 5-11; Boswell 5-1; Acton 1-13; Kelenberger 6-0-12 and Smith 0-0-0.

McCoy—McCoy 5-0-10; Biddle 0-2-2; Mason 2-3-7; Kimball 7-0-14; Dale Dawson 4-2-10 and Welsh 4-0-8.

Giants Receive Frisco Offer

NEW YORK (AP)—It begins to look as though all the New York Giants have to do to move their National League baseball franchise to San Francisco is pack their bags.

President Horace Stoneham, who has said for a month or so he would move as soon as he received a "satisfactory proposition," announced Thursday he has received "a very firm and fair offer" from Mayor Christopher of San Francisco.

All that remains, apparently, is a formal presentation of the San Francisco offer before the club's board of directors, which Stoneham added he would do "within the next 10 days."

Rotary Golf Tourney Held at Springfield

Washington C. H. Rotary Club golfers didn't finish among the winners in the District 667 tournament at the Springfield Country Club Thursday, but they had a big time trying.

Two local teams entered the tourney. The Championship foursome which copped the title last year, was made up of Bill Himmelsbach, John Elcessor, Max Lawrence and Dr. I. L. Humphrey. Members of the No. 1 team were Bob Lisk, Clarence Cooper, Ray Brandenburg and Mike Harrison.

Approximately 180 Rotarians took part in the tournament, with Dr. John Lorms, Springfield, former NCAA champion at Ohio State University, turning in a low score of 69.

Himmelsbach's 77 was low for the Washington C. H. contingent.

for today's 100-150 bushel yields

Here's your best choice of two-row mounted corn pickers. Long, eager snapping rolls with spacing you can adjust from the tractor seat. New roller-type gathering chains cut upkeep costs... are twice as strong, last three times as long as pressed steel or pintle types.

Side and wagon elevators are bigger... handle your big ears and bumper crop yields. Long, live snapping roll points lift the down and leaning stalks... bring in more corn every year... in every field condition.

You get more safety in an Oliver Mounted, too. Safety clearing of the snapping rolls... safety clutches on all main assemblies... safety roominess on the platform. If you own an Oliver row-crop tractor, be sure you see the Oliver Mounted before you buy a picker.

Giants Favored Over All-Stars

Pros Given 10-Point Budge by Guessperts

CHICAGO (AP)—Tonight's 24th annual All-Star Football Game pits the slashing running attack of the New York Giants against the untested passing offense of the collegians.

The Giants, National Football League champions, are favored over the All-Stars by 10 points in the season's first big gridiron encounter.

A crowd of 75,000 or more is expected to pour into Soldier Field. The game will be televised by ABC at 8:30 p.m., EST.

This is an enthusiastic bunch of collegians who have been working out under Coach Curly Lambeau. Never has an All-Star squad boasted such to-flight passers as John Brodie of Stanford, Lennie Dawson of Purdue, Jim Harris of Oklahoma and Paul Hornung of Notre Dame. Since the Giants line is big and tough — and led the NFL defensively last season — it seems only logical for the collegians to pin all their hopes on passing.

The All-Stars also have some excellent pass catchers in Ron Kramer and Tom Maentz of Michigan, Brad Bomba of Indiana and Lamar Lundy of Purdue.

To back up the passing threat the college team has some fine breakaway runners in Jim Brown of Syracuse, Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma, Jon Arnett of Southern California and Clarence Peaks of Michigan State.

It is this strong collection of offensive talent that prevents the Giants from being overwhelming favorites. Conceivably, if the All-Stars could score early on a pass or a long run, they might be able to go on and upset the big pro champions.

Even the experts who concede the great potential of the All-Stars, all but one of whom will go on to play professional football this fall, admit time has been too short to weld the individual stars into a smooth running team.

The Giants, on the other hand, have lost only Rosy Grier at tackle out of their great 1956 team that swept to the NFL crown by beating the Chicago Bears 47-7 in the championship game.

Ohio Legion Tourney in Semifinals

COLUMBUS (AP)—The 28th annual Ohio American Legion junior baseball tournament goes into the semifinal round today with defending champion Cincinnati, Warren and Lancaster vying for top honors.

In today's opening round, undefeated Lancaster goes against once-beaten Warren. If Lancaster wins, it will meet Cincinnati in the final championship round. To win, however, once-beaten Cincinnati must beat Lancaster twice.

The arithmetic in this double-elimination tournament is a bit more complicated if Warren wins the opener. In that case, Warren would play Cincinnati in the second round with the winner to meet Lancaster in the final Saturday.

In Thursday's action, Cincinnati jumped back from a morning 10-2 drubbing by Lancaster to eliminate Elyria 3-2. The morning setback was the first tournament loss for heavily favored Cincinnati.

In the other afternoon game Warren eliminated Celina 3-2, Warren bumped Akron from the tournament 10-2 and Celina eliminated Newark 3-2.

Girls' Softball Tourney Opening

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Defending champion Toledo drew an opening round bye in the state girls' softball tournament here today.

The double elimination tournament at Lagonda Field here will continue through next Wednesday.

The first-round pairings: Salem vs. Willard, Akron No. 1 vs. Newark, Grove City vs. Akron No. 2, Braceville vs. Canton, Dayton vs. Hubbard, Springfield vs. Zanesville, Columbus vs. Dalton.

National Loop Race Suddenly Becomes Walk

Milwaukee Well Ahead As Cincinnati Again Rolls Over, Plays Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
What are those other National League contenders trying to do, lure the Milwaukee Braves into a false feeling of security?

Any way you look at it, the scramble suddenly has opened up and the Braves are on top with a "whopping" 2½-game lead—their largest of the season. They made it as Cincinnati rolled over again, 5-3 Thursday and the seventh-place Chicago Cubs bopped the second-place St. Louis Cardinals 4-3 for a three-game sweep.

Third-place Brooklyn is five games back, skidding with a 12-3 clobbering from the New York Giants. Cincinnati and Philadelphia now are tied for fourth, seven games behind, after the Phillies defeated Pittsburgh 6-3 while the Redlegs lost for the 11th time in 12 games with Milwaukee this season.

If this is the breakup in the NL log jam, the Braves should know by Sunday night—after a three-game set at St. Louis.

In the American League, Washington made it two in a row over New York 6-1 and trimmed the Yankees' lead to five games as Chicago's second-place White Sox defeated Kansas City 7-4.

Baltimore regained fifth place from Detroit by defeating Boston 3-1 while the Tigers lost to Cleveland 3-1.

Red Schoendienst, the second baseman who was supposed to have brought the Braves the pennant along with his bat and glove when the Giants traded him to Milwaukee June 15, got the job done Thursday. He lined a two-run single in the eighth, breaking a 3-3 tie and bringing Lew Burdette his 10th victory.

Ex-Brave George Crowe hammered his 24th home run and Frank Robinson swatted his 18th in the eighth to junk a 3-1 Milwaukee lead. Reliever Raul Sanchez lost it, loading the bases with two walks and a hit batsman ahead of Schoendienst's hit.

The Cubs won six in a row for the first time since 1955 with a two-run seventh against southpaw Wilmer Mizell that cracked a two-all tie. Singles by Moe Drabowsky, the young right-hander who won his eighth, and Bobby Adams brought in the runs. Dave Hillman blanked the Cards after relieving Drabowsky when a walk and two singles gave the Cards a run in the eighth. Del Ennis had a two-run homer for St. Louis while Stan Musial had two singles and regained the bat lead at 334.

The Giants completed a sweep of the last three games in the four-game set with the Dodgers by scoring four runs in the first against ex-pal Sal Maglie. They had 14 hits in all, counting home runs by Willie Mays (26) and Hank Sauer (16). Ruben Gomez won his 12th with a seven-hit job.

Philadelphia gave Curt Simmons a 6-0 lead with three runs in the sixth, two on Gran Hamner's home run, but the southpaw needed relief help in the ninth to win his 11th. Bob Miller nailed it, after Bob Skinner's home run triggered a three-run Pirate rally. Vern Law lost it.

Russ Kemmerer had given the Yankees only five singles and led 6-0 going into the ninth. Then a single, walk and Enos Slaughter's double saved New York from what would have been its second shut-out of the year. Art Ditmar lost it.

Billy Pierce, the AL's only 15-game winner, gave way to Gerry Staley when the A's scored one in the fourth and cut Chicago's lead to 6-4. Staley blanked 'em on five hits the rest of the way for a 3-0 record. Earl Torgeson, 3-for-4, drove in five runs and hit a pair of homers—the first a three-run shot in a five-run third against winless Rip Coleman.

Billy O'Dell gave up Dick Gerrit's home run in the seventh and needed relief help because of a sore arm, but joined Pierce, Cleveland's Don Mossi and Yankee Bobby Shantz as the only left-handers to beat Boston this year. Tito Francona's RBI triple capped a two-run third that clinched it for the Orioles against Mike Foran. Ted Williams had two of

Two wins on successive evenings put the Kernels right in the thick of the Little League championship scramble.

They followed up Wednesday evening's 9 to 7 victory over the Cubs with a 14 to 5 conquest of the Flashes at Wilson Field Thursday night.

Those two victories gave the Kernels a record of 6 wins and 3 losses. That stretch drive tightened the race between the Kernels and Realtors, who have a 7-2 record as they get set for their Saturday night tussle with the Cubs.

Still in contention are the Cow-boys with a 5-3 record. They meet the Jets tonight.

The Kernels collected 16 hits off the combined offerings of Armbrust and Curtis while Burnett was holding the Kernels to 5 safeties.

HAROLD ROSS - JUNIOR SATTERFIELD

for today's 100-150 bushel yields

Here's your best choice of two-row mounted corn pickers. Long, eager snapping rolls with spacing you can adjust from the tractor seat. New roller-type gathering chains cut upkeep costs . . . are twice as strong, last three times as long as pressed steel or pintle types.

Side and wagon elevators are bigger . . . handle your big ears and bumper crop yields. Long, live snapping roll points lift the down and leaning stalks . . . bring in more corn every year . . . in every field condition.

You get more safety in an Oliver Mounted, too. Safety clearing of the snapping rolls . . . safety clutches on all main assemblies . . . safety roominess on the platform. If you own an Oliver row-crop tractor, be sure you see the Oliver Mounted before you buy a picker.

Ohio Legion Tourney in Semifinals

COLUMBUS (AP)—The 28th annual Ohio American Legion junior baseball tournament goes into the semifinal round today with defending champion Cincinnati, Warren and Lancaster vying for top honors.

In today's opening round, undefeated Lancaster goes against once-beaten Warren. If Lancaster wins, it will meet Cincinnati in the final championship round. To win, however, once-beaten Cincinnati must beat Lancaster twice.

The arithmetic in this double-elimination tournament is a bit more complicated if Warren wins the opener. In that case, Warren would play Cincinnati in the second round with the winner to meet Lancaster in the final Saturday.

In Thursday's action, Cincinnati jumped back from a morning 10-2 drubbing by Lancaster to eliminate Elyria 3-2. The morning setback was the first tournament loss for heavily favored Cincinnati.

In the other afternoon game, Warren eliminated Celina 3-2, Warren bopped Akron from the tournament 10-2 and Celina eliminated Newark 3-2.

Girls' Softball Tourney Opening

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Defending champion Toledo drew an opening round bye in the state girls' softball tournament here today.

The double elimination tournament at Lagonda Field here will continue through next Wednesday.

The first round pairings: Salem vs. Willard, Akron No. 1 vs. Newark, Grove City vs. Akron No. 2, Braceville vs. Canton, Dayton vs. Hubbard, Springfield vs. Zanesville, Columbus vs. Dalton.

County Relief Cost $240,588

$86,332.596 Spent
By All Ohio Counties

Fayette County spent $240,588 last year for relief in one form or another, figures released by the auditor of state, James A. Rhodes, show.

Among 17 counties of comparable population, Fayette County ranked fifth from the top in relief expenses. Leading was Adams County with relief costs of $377,971 and last on the list was Morrow County with $112,001.

More than one dollar of every three spent last year for operating expenses of the state's 88 counties went for some form of relief, the auditor's report said.

Annual financial reports filed by county auditors with the state auditor, show $86,332.596 was spent for poor relief, children's homes, county homes (non. in Fayette County) dependent and crippled children, aid for the disabled, blind relief, soldier's relief and burials.

THIS REPRESENTED 37 per cent of the $230,988.791 spent by the counties for operating expenses.

Comparison of county expenditures in 1956 and 1946 show that most classifications have about doubled. Highways took $50.9 million in 1956 and $21 million in 1946. General executive expenses of county government jumped from $7.4 million in 1946 to $15.7 million in 1956; judicial costs from $6 million to $13.

During the same period expenditures classed as "relief" increased almost four-fold, from $22.9 million in 1946 to $86.3 million in 1956.

Wide variance is shown in the relief expenditures of counties having approximately the same population. Pike county, which ranks 85th in population, spent more for relief than 60 larger counties, more than 13th ranked Columbiana county with almost seven times the population of Pike.

No One Injured In Two Accidents

No injuries were reported in two auto accidents here Thursday.

At 10:40 a. m., 4 1/2 miles south of Washington C. H. on Route 62, a car driven by Emrum Lynch, 38, of 217 Mulberry St., made a left turn and hit an auto driven by Vernon Shatto, 56, of Tampa, Fla.

Shatto, who was trying to pass at the time, said he saw no directional signals. Lynch said he had turned them on.

A car driven by Ronald Swingle, 52, of 1226 S. Main St., hit another driven by Paul A. Wilkins, 55, of Hillsboro, at Sycamore and Fourth Sts. about 11:40 p. m. There is no stop sign or traffic light at the intersection. Damage was not heavy, police said.

Police also said that John Francis Phillips, 49, hospitalized after an accident at Gregg and Forest Sts. about 5:20 p. m. Wednesday did not have the right of way, as reported in the Record-Herald. Arleigh S. McCoy, 39, of 928 Lakeview Ave., driver of the other car, was in the right, they said.

The error was made in copying information from police records.

Fayette Youths Finish Army Automobile Course

Two Fayette County youths, Pyts. Don W. Burke and John W. Alexander, recently were graduated from the eight-week automotive maintenance helpers' course at the Army's Armor Training Center, Ft. Knox, Ky.

Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burke, Route 4, is a 1949 graduate of Washington C. H. High School.

Alexander, whose wife, Audrey, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman W. Alexander, live on Route 5, entered the Army last February.

29 Die in Floods

NAGOYA, Japan (AP) — National police said today 29 persons were dead, 35 injured, 32 missing and 33,205 homeless in central Japan as a result of floods and landslides caused by torrential rains which fell Thursday.

Generous Gestures Brings $97.50 to Red Cross Here

The Fayette County chapter of the Red Cross today is $97.50 richer, all because of a couple of generous gestures at Thursday night's bi-weekly "men's night" at the Country Club.

At these every-other-Thursday get-togethers of men of the club, dinner is served on a Dutch treat basis at $1.25 a plate; each man pays for his own dinner when a member of the host committee goes from table to table.

The procedures were much the same Thursday night, up to a point.

Without fanfare, or advance notice, the chairman of the host committee, Ansel W. Kirkpatrick, simply picked up the tab and paid the bill himself. Then at his suggestion, the $97.50 collected by a member of the committee from the diners was turned over unceremoniously to Tom Mark, a member of the Red Cross executive committee.

One of the other hosts, who admitted Kirkpatrick's payment of the bill came as a surprise to him, said: "It all goes to prove that people are generous and that this is a fine community in which to live."

Second Kewanee Well Now Down 2,442 Feet

Kewanee's No. 2 test well has averaged better than 125 feet per day since last reported. Friday at 8 a. m. its depth was reported at 2,442 feet, an increase of 377 feet during the past three days.

The well is located at Mrs. Edgar Wilson's farm on Miami Trace Rd., half a mile south of Worthington Rd.

Sewage Plant Expansion Details Eyed

A tour of inspection and a series of conferences in Columbus Thursday are expected to speed the city's request for a $129,000 government grant for sewage treatment plant expansion work through proper channels.

City Manager James F. Parkinson, W. D. Sheets, who acts as sewage treatment plant engineer for the city, C. J. Markham, treatment plant supervisor, and Charles Bird, of the firm of Bird and Tietzel, consulting engineers, visited the Columbus sewage treatment plant to inspect new types of equipment installed there.

The object was to see if some of these mechanical improvements might be incorporated in plans for the Washington C. H. project which will cost an estimated $430,000.

THE INSPECTION trip was followed by a general discussion of detailed plans for the expansion program here.

Bird and Tietzel is completing final detailed plans for the project as well as a detailed cost estimate. These will be presented to City Council, probably at next week's meeting.

If Council approves, the plans and specifications will be submitted to the Ohio Department of Health for final approval.

A new sewer rental ordinance will be necessary to provide the city's share of expansion costs.

Erring Driver Jailed, Fined

A W. Temple St. man was sentenced to two days in jail after he was found guilty of driving while his license was under revocation by Judge Max G. Dice in Municipal Court Friday.

Fined $5 and costs in addition to the jail sentence was Homer Anders, 25, of 423 W. Temple St. He pleaded innocent but was found guilty. He was under suspension because of an earlier conviction for drunken driving.

Three other persons drew traffic fines and five forfeited bond for non-appearance in court Friday.

FINED $5 and costs for speeding were Charles Garrison, 31, of 410 E. East St., and James Hopkins, 30, of Covington, Ky. Garrison pleaded guilty but Hopkins was found guilty after pleading innocent.

Forfeiting bond were:

Richard Potts, 21, of Cincinnati, $30, speeding;

William D. Goins, 37, of Xenia, $30, speeding;

Cory Mahan, 33, of Baytown, Texas, $20, speeding;

Harry Wilt, 38, Piqua, $20, speeding;

Thomas Strangers, 39, St. Clairsville, running a stop sign, $15.

Man Injures Hand In Belt Mishap

John M. Storer, 40, of Barger Rd. near Leesburg, lost the tips of the middle and ring fingers of his left hand after he caught them in a motor belt at the U. S. Government Grain Storage Yard, Jeffersonville, Thursday.

Storer, an employee there, put his hand onto the belt after it got stuck, thinking the switch was off. With a slight pressure, the belt whipped into motion, caught his hand, and yanked it into a V between two belts.

He was brought to Memorial Hospital where he received emergency treatment.

Among others, Harvard teaches the Icelandic and Slovene languages.

Mainly About People

Army Pvt. Ronald E. Coates, 523 1/2 John St., Washington C. H., recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Robert Craig and William Lord of the Craig Bros. store returned Thursday from New York City where they attended showings of the new fall and winter fashions.

Harry Speakman, Record-Herald mechanical superintendent, returned Thursday from a week's tour of the Abitibi Power & Paper Co. mills and logging camps in Ontario, Canada, north of Lake Superior.

Pickering Delegate To IFYE Conference

Ed Richard Pickering of Jamestown, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sollars of Bunker Hill-Glen Rd., will be a delegate to the sixth annual International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) conference at 4-H Camp Dawson, Dawson Springs, Ky., Aug. 13-16.

During 1956, Pickering spent five months in Israel where he "lived, worked and played" with farm families while learning the customs of the country. Since the IFYE program was begun in 1947, approximately 800 young men and women have gone overseas to study farm problems in more than 50 countries.

Since returning from Israel, Pickering has begun working on a graduate degree at Ohio State University and has given many illustrated talks of his experiences before interested groups throughout the state.

Chief aim of the IFYE conference is to explore ways to extend the scope and influence of the exchange program.

This privately financed program is sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the land grant colleges and the National 4-H Foundation.

Marchant Attends Prosecutor Course

Fayette County Prosecutor Rollo M. Marchant is one of 121 prosecuting attorneys from 27 states who have been attending a special course in criminal case procedures at the Northwest University law school in Chicago this week.

Mrs. Marchant accompanied her husband to Chicago.

The programs, which close Friday, have included instruction in the preparation and trial of criminal cases; a review of scientific methods in criminal investigations and prosecutions and a forum for the mutual exchange of information by attending prosecutors.

Subjects covered included selection of jurors, basic principles in interrogation, time of death determination, ballistics, lie detector techniques, prosecution of drunk driving cases, documents examination, and microanalysis in criminal investigation.

Real Estate Levy Pays Only Fraction of Municipal Expenses

City 'In the Hole' on Tax Distribution

The money Washington C. H. gets from real estate taxes for its general fund does not go far toward paying for the normal operations of government which last year cost $190,458.28.

Without the income from parking meters, local government funds received from the state sales tax, and fines, costs and bond forfeitures paid through the Municipal Court, the city would face a financial crisis.

That's about the way the situation was summed up by City Manager James F. Parkinson when the city's share of real estate taxes in the Aug. 1 distribution second this year by County Auditor Harry Allen, was not enough to offset the fixed expenses which are deducted by the auditor.

Actually, the city was $1,192.83 in the hole in the general fund on the current distribution.

"This is the first time the city ever had an overdraft like this," Parkinson said.

HOWEVER, the city had coming to it at this distribution $4,011.62 from inheritance taxes and the $1,192.83 overdraft was deducted from this; so, the city's general fund distribution was brought out of the red and there was $2,818.79 left from its inheritance tax.

The city's share of real estate taxes at this distribution was $7,869.05 and the deductions amounted to $9,061.81.

The deductions were: $3,700.86 for workmen's compensation; $2,700 for the Health Department (half year); and $2,661.02 for state examiners' expenses.

Of course, this was not the only money the city has received for its general fund from taxes. In the February distribution of real estate taxes, it got $14,167.24 after deductions of $2,706.84; it got $2,191.45 from personal property taxes in April and will get about the same amount in October; it had received previously $17,036.61 from inheritance taxes; $1,000 from the classified tax; and $1,984.81 from cigarette taxes.

THIS ADDS UP to only $35,380.11 the city already has received this year for its general fund from taxes of various kinds.

But, that is only a drop in the bucket compared to the cost of normal general fund operations, which last year amounted to $190,458.28.

What the city gets from inheritance taxes varies; so do the funds from two other sources. But, Parkinson said that, on the basis of income last year, the city is counting on around $42,000 for the current year from parking meters, $30,000 from the state from sales taxes (local government fund) and $28,000 from Municipal Court fines, costs and bond forfeitures.

He commented that the laws are not enforced and fines assessed to produce revenue, but the implication that the city would be in financial trouble without this money was unmistakable.

The city spends no money from its general fund for street improvement or sewers, the city manager emphasized. The street program is carried on, he explained, with money from a special voted 5-year levy, which expires next year, and money from the gasoline and motor vehicle taxes that comes from the state.

OF THE $222,298.96 distributed Aug. 1 from real estate taxes, $90,761.41 went to the Miami Trace schools; $76,732.88 to the Washington C. H. schools and $16,802.50 to the 10 townships. This accounted for most of the money; the other distributions were small.

The first distribution of real estate taxes this year to all subdivisions amounted to $454,944.99. This one, made last February, was larger than the second distribution on Aug. 1 primarily because the collections were increased by many payments of the full year's real estate taxes during the first tax collection period.

Around $200,000 also will be distributed this year among all the subdivisions from personal property taxes.

WORRY AND INDIFFERENCE

★ Overanxiety, particularly about health, is a disease in itself. Physicians call it hypochondria. Those who "enjoy" ill health only make themselves and those about them miserable.

Opposed to chronic worry is complete indifference, to the point of disregard of common-sense health rules and contempt for medical care.

Between these two absurd extremes lies the sane middle road. Petty, transient discomforts need not cause grave concern and frequent trips to the doctor. When symptoms persist or recur with annoying frequency, it is then time to seek professional assistance. Indifference under these circumstances only invites more serious trouble.

County Relief Cost $240,588

$86,332.596 Spent
By All Ohio Counties

Fayette County spent $240,588 last year for relief in one form or another, figures released by the auditor of state, James A. Rhodes, show.

Among 17 counties of comparable population, Fayette County ranked fifth from the top in relief expenses. Leading was Adams County with relief costs of $377,971 and last on the list was Morrow County with $112,001.

More than one dollar of every three spent last year for operating expenses of the state's 88 counties went for some form of relief, the auditor's report said.

Annual financial reports filed by county auditors with the state auditor, show $86,332.596 was spent for poor relief, children's homes, county homes (non. in Fayette County) dependent and crippled children, aid for the disabled, blind relief, soldier's relief and burials.

THIS REPRESENTED 37 percent of the $230,988,791 spent by the counties for operating expenses.

Comparison of county expenditures in 1956 and 1946 show that most classifications have about doubled. Highways took $50.9 million in 1956 and $21 million in 1946. General executive expenses of county government jumped from $7.4 million in 1946 to $15.7 million in 1956; judicial costs from $6 million to $13.

During the same period expenditures classed as "relief" increased almost four-fold, from $22.9 million in 1946 to $86.3 million in 1956.

Wide variance is shown in the relief expenditures of counties having approximately the same population. Pike county, which ranks 85th in population, spent more for relief than 60 larger counties, more than 13th ranked Columbiana county with almost seven times the population of Pike.

No One Injured In Two Accidents

No injuries were reported in two auto accidents here Thursday.

At 10:40 a. m., 4 1/2 miles south of Washington, C. H. on Route 62, a car driven by Emrum Lynch, 38, of 217 Mulberry St., made a left turn and hit an auto driven by Vernon Shatto, 56, of Tampa, Fla.

Shatto, who was trying to pass at the time, said he saw no directional signals. Lynch said he had turned them on.

A car driven by Ronald Swingle, 52, of 1226 S. Main St., hit another driven by Paul A. Wilkins, 55, of Hillsboro, at Sycamore and Fourth Sts. about 11:40 p. m. There is no stop sign or traffic light at the intersection. Damage was not heavy, police said.

Police also said that John Francis Phillips, 49, hospitalized after an accident at Gregg and Forest Sts. about 5:20 p. m. Wednesday did not have the right of way, as reported in the Record-Herald. Arleigh S. McCoy, 39, of 928 Lakeview Ave., driver of the other car, was in the right, they said.

The error was made in copying information from police records.

Fayette Youths Finish Army Automobile Course

Two Fayette County youths, Patsy Don W. Burke and John W. Alexander, recently were graduated from the eight-week automotive maintenance helper course at the Army's Armor Training Center, Ft. Knox, Ky.

Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burke, Route 4, is a 1949 graduate of Washington C. H. High School.

Alexander, whose wife, Audrey, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman W. Alexander, live on Route 5, entered the Army last February.

Generous Gestures Brings $97.50 to Red Cross Here

The Fayette County chapter of the Red Cross today is $97.50 richer, all because of a couple of generous gestures at Thursday night's bi-weekly "men's night" at the Country Club.

At these every-other-Thursday get-togethers of men of the club, dinner is served on a Dutch treat basis at $1.25 a plate; each man pays for his own dinner when a member of the host committee goes from table to table.

The procedures were much the same Thursday night. Up to a point.

Without fanfare, or advance notice, the chairman of the host committee, Ansel W. Kirkpatrick, simply picked up the tab and paid the bill himself. Then at his suggestion, the $97.50 collected by a member of the committee from the diners was turned over unceremoniously to Tom Mark, a member of the Red Cross executive committee.

One of the other hosts, who admitted Kirkpatrick's payment of the bill came as a surprise to him, said: "It all goes to prove that people are generous and that this is a fine community in which to live."

Sewage Plant Expansion Details Eyed

A tour of inspection and a series of conferences in Columbus Thursday are expected to speed the city's request for a $129,000 government grant for sewage treatment plant expansion work through proper channels.

City Manager James F. Parkinson, W. D. Sheets, who acts as sewage treatment plant engineer for the city, C. J. Barkham, treatment plant supervisor, and Charles Bird, of the firm of Bird and Tietzel, consulting engineers, visited the Columbus sewage treatment plant to inspect new types of equipment installed there.

The object was to see if some of these mechanical improvements might be incorporated in plans for the Washington C. H. project which will cost an estimated $430,000.

THE INSPECTION trip was followed by a general discussion of detailed plans for the expansion program here.

Bird and Tietzel is completing final detailed plans for the project as well as a detailed cost estimate. These will be presented to City Council, probably at next week's meeting.

If Council approves, the plans and specifications will be submitted to the Ohio Department of Health for final approval.

A new sewer rental ordinance will be necessary to provide the city's share of expansion costs.

Real Estate Levy Pays Only Fraction of Municipal Expenses

City 'In the Hole' on Tax Distribution

This one, made last February, was larger than the second distribution on Aug. 1 primarily because the collections were increased by many payments of the full year's real estate taxes during the first tax collection period.

Around $200,000 also will be distributed this year among all the subdivisions from personal property taxes.
